

of having served the summonses on both defendants in the statutory manner.

Hanly's mother appeared and told the Justice that she was unable to get the defendant to come to the Court. He had, she said, a natural fear of the Gardai since, when a member of the Construction Corps, he had been confined for nine months in a detention barracks.

The Justice issued a bench warrant for the arrest of both defendants and adjourned the case for a week.

---

FATAL COLLISION

—oo—

LIMERICK FARMER'S DEATH

A popular farmer, Mr. Patrick Harty, Castletroy, near Limerick, was involved in a fatal collision last evening. He was cycling into the city when a collision between himself and a motor car occurred. He received very serious injuries and died later in the County Infirmary.

The deceased, who was aged 45, was unmarried. His sister lived with him and to her and the other bereaved relatives the deepest sympathy is extended.

---

LAND COMMISSION.

We are officially informed that the Land Commissioners will hold a sitting at the Courthouse, Limerick, on Saturday, 21st inst., at 11 a.m., for the hearing of applications, petitions and objections arising under the Land Acts.

naturally be very high.

Rutherford died in San Diego, California, in 1942. His successor is Nathan Homer Knorr, who rose from clerk to general manager in the Witnesses' big publishing plant and was elected president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society—an institution for the dissemination of false doctrines and attacks particularly on the Catholic Church.

---

MOTHER AND SON

—oo—

DIE WITHIN 24 HOURS

The deaths have occurred at their residence, Rowells, Meelin, of Mrs. Catherine Browne, relict of the late John T. Browne, and of her son, Daniel, within 24 hours during the week past (writes our Tullylease correspondent). Their deaths under such tragic circumstances have cast a gloom over the district. Their funeral from Meelin Catholic Church on Saturday last to Kilcorcoran Cemetery was of immense proportions.

---

PARENTS FINED

A considerable portion of the business of to-day's sitting of Limerick District Court was devoted to the hearing of minor prosecutions brought by the local Gardai. In a number of summonses brought by Mr. T. Smalle under the Vocational Education Act, against parents for failing to send their children to school until the prescribed age of 16 years was reached, Mr. D. F. Gleeson, B.L., D.J., imposed fines ranging from 7/6 to £1.

June, and collapsed on it just there was time. Mr. Ryan mu ing up a old stand the time.

Cross-e paid for question. people go without p up there then on t up on plaintiff, on the s standing in the Ryan cou away at about 4 which he one. He was a da officials climbing witness t thought h of makin people ha then that ous. It knew pla Ryan.

ABOU
James present