

of them for a fortnight being satisfied with them go. How many did the employer get, with pay. I kept a fair number.

—Actually, how many? My information is very few.

I kept a fair number his matter may be ways. The person may be absolutely methods of applying. Maybe he did not girls suitable and then go.

may be quite sure were recommended by less they were the school had to offer. He asked the C.E.O. sidered was a fair girls to be employed out of the entire d temporarily.

plied that the pro-out in the manner less than half of the taken originally.

, B.C.—How long did without pay? I think it was a couple ime.

Twice is enough for t to occur.

PRESS NOT TO BLAME.

lan, B.C., said the of the school con-in any way to blame occurred. The Com-sistently appealed to ply to its schools for , in such cases, the exploited, as was , it was the Com-sibility to expose n as they were doing he remarked that de the slightest sug-headmistress of St. blame for what had sition of Mr. Hickey,

It would seem that the 'bookies' had their cash bags open when a group of three or four men rushed up, made a grab, and succeeded in getting away with bundles of notes. The Limerick bookmaker is missing £90, while his Dublin confrere is stated to have been robbed of £250.

Gardai are investigating the affair.

DEATH OF MRS. M. D. DUGGAN

It is with very deep regret that we chronicle the demise of Mrs. Margaret M. Duggan, widow of the late Mr. James F. Duggan, footwear merchant, Patrick St., Limerick. The deceased lady, who passed away at Milford Convalescent Home, enjoyed the esteem and respect of a very wide circle of friends, and her death will occasion widespread regret and sorrow. To her bereaved family and other relatives we tender our sincere sympathy.

APPOINTED AS FLIGHT STEWARDS

Nine members of the Shannon Airport catering staff have been appointed, subject to medical examination, as flight stewards for the proposed Aer Linte trans-Atlantic service. They include Mr. John Creed, Limerick; Mr. Timothy Condon, Limerick, and Mr. Stephen Foley, Askeaton, Co. Limerick. The new flight stewards, who are the first to be appointed to the Irish air companies, are leaving shortly for a course of instruction with B.O.A.C. in London.

PRIEST DEPARTS FOR U.S.A.

To mark the occasion of his departure to the U.S.A., Rev. Joseph Hayes, Ballyowen, Ballagh, was presented with a wallet of notes by the people of his native parish.

ence to him; and so fitting Limerick Legionaries, both and auxiliary, are asked to c his canonisation on Sunday. For further particulars advertising columns.

FOURTH IN Y

—oo—

WHITE GLOVES AGAIN CLARE

Judge Barra O'Brian, a Circuit Court, was present white gloves to mark the of the county from in crime.

Returning thanks, his I said that since the corres term last year white glove been presented to him no l four times in Clare, includ presentations in succession

In each of the other that formed his circuit gloves had also been present said. That showed that sence of indictable crime a mere flash in the pan a actual conditions from the view of the absence of crim really good in that circuit

HOLY GHOST ORD

On Sunday, July 13th, Rev. Joseph Tobin, C.S.Sp., was a priest by His Grace, Most. McQuaid, Archbishop of The ceremony was perform Clonliffe College. Father the younger son of Mrs. Tobin and the late John T Mitchelstown. He was educ the Christian Brothers Mitchelstown, and at College, Tipperary. After t pletion of his secondary st joined the Holy Ghost Fath is an honours graduate National University, Dubli spent three years teaching i well College in the interim