

ns in various ine or commercial
will go to the city
professions and
and other such
will emigrate.
ence, and others
so, that there is
on the part of a post-primary
to their children
ools or Technical r or two. These are beginning to
foolish to deprive urse of training
ttle inconvenience
eir lives and the
a handicap and he rest of their ng tends towards
on. Training in y for girls makes
to provide happy
ledge of Rural
al work for boys,
truly educational,
on for profitable
r what profession
and enables them
l better lives. It reflection on the m to find girls
ed rushing to the
earn the elements
watch a mature
t how to hold a
ke simple joints
cks up courage to
k class.
orward to the day
and girl will be
course in a Voca-
are aware that its distant, and we ter for things as

UCATION NOT UGH

Friday, the 1st August.

The Post Office Savings Bank will be closed on August Monday.

HOME GARDENS SCHEME

One of the winners in the 1947 Home Gardens Prize Scheme competitions held recently by the County Limerick Vocational Education Committee was Donal Houlihan, Monavaha, Shanagolden, whose name was omitted from the list of winners published in our issue of July 19th.

CORN LODGED

The heavy rains of the past week (writes our Bruff correspondent) caused the lodging of portion of corn crops, particularly oats, in South Limerick. The quantity lodged is not, fortunately, very large.

DEATH.

NOONAN—July 29th, at Carey's Road, Limerick, Patrick Noonan, R.I.P. Remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church this (Wednesday) evening at 8.45 o'clock. Funeral to-morrow (Thursday), to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, at 3 o'clock. (American papers, please copy).

IN MEMORIAM.

COSTELLO (First Anniversary) —In ever loving memory of our dear daughter, Maura Costello, 35 Smith O'Brien Avenue, Clancy Park, Thomondgate, Limerick, who died on July 30th, 1946. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.
Will those who think of her

Conn eight lengths fu

AT GOODWOOD

The sun shone bright wood to-day, when feature of the afternoon Goodwood Stakes. A of stamina, run over 2 miles and 3 furlongs going, it attracted a stayers. The best of ers for the rich prize Strathmore, ridden by English apprentice, T which won easily by from the fancied M the equally fancied three-quarters of a third.

Better Catch was the champion jockey, ards, who was expected hat-trick of successes won the two previous looked exceptionally well dock, but for all that not stay the trip as winner. By finishing holm, wearing the luck nose band, once more the first prize, and had the winning enclosure four years. Lightest race was Mr. J. V. R with the 6st. 2lbs. E.

At the start Mythol trouble and Melior around. They were under way, and it was Mytholm was out in Strathmore and nearest attendants, gieur last. The order same after passing longs post with Te well up and Better from the rere. Short Better Catch moved place with Prickly f cony Scene close up. covered Balcony S to the front followe