

the Court, the child-
ast have had food
the premises.
aid the defendant
e last sitting that
wife by consent
er contested this
oning that Mrs.
en evidence with
e effect.
an refused to live
nd family, and if
e that he did not
maintenance, it is
ence that he was
so.

on of the sugges-
of the defendant
consent,

HER SEVERAL IES.

ara said she never
to live away from
left her to go to
l badly neglected
the children; he
e earned and had
ifferent occasions.
home for a fort-
his treatment and
because one of her
ill. It was imme-
return that her
would leave and
ke over control of
he children. She
y time agreed that
her. She agreed 6th he had given
as only after she
m into a public-
was drinking.

said the circum-
y sad. The defen-
woman and they
en, and, from the
t appeared that he
maintain them. He
such a man could
ency or any mercy
He had placed him-

defendant was caught on the lane at a very early hour and he was probably there for a longer period, as he had five rabbits in his possession. He would ask the Justice to take into account the fact that the defendant was not in Court to give an explanation for the trespass.

The Justice imposed a fine of 40/-, with 25/- expenses.

DEATH OF MRS. PURCELL, UREGARE

Mrs. Eithne Purcell, of Uregare House, Bruff, died suddenly at her residence on Sunday morning (writes our Bruff correspondent).
Deceased, who was a comparatively young woman, had been in rather failing health for some time, though she had been out shopping as usual on Saturday. An inquest was not deemed necessary.

She was wife of Mr. William T.
Purcell, Uregare House, an extensive and progressive farmer, who has had a distinguished national record. He was prominently identified with the Irish War of Independence and during the Emergency, just over, was District Leader of the Bruff District, L.D.F. He is a member of the Council of Bruff Parish Council.

The late Mrs. Purcell was very popular and her passing has evoked deep regret over a wide area and much sympathy has been tendered to Mr. Purcell and family.

O.S.A. PILGRIMAGE TO LOURDES

Owing to war conditions, it is so many years since the faithful were able to go on pilgrimage to Lourdes that a good deal of interest has been aroused by the announcement