

xt annual
to be held
Limerick,
of Septem-
ation of a
sell Beer,
liquors by
ses known
Catherine
Parish of
of Lime-
being by e deceased
O'Grady,
respect of
of August,

RADY,
pplicant.
olicitor,
merick.
da Sioch-
Limerick;
District
se, Lime-
(23c)

DUCTS

that the
er and* re-
be closed
o 1st Sep-
inclusive.
DON,
ecretary.

(f23c)

rate paid to any worker in that class of employee in any part of the country. Water-keepers, for the purpose of wages, were in the same category as agricultural labourers, and the Committee found that the Board's keepers were paid even more than agricultural workers. Another reason for the Committee's recommendation was that the Board was not financially sit-proposition.

On a show of
bers (includi
voted for Mr. I
and three for
sition.
The amend
carried and
of the Com
keepers' den
wages, was ad

OBITUARY

—oo—

MISS EILEEN NEVILLE, HOLLYPARK.

The death of Miss Eileen Neville, Hollypark, Kilcornan, which occurred at the City Hospital, Limerick, on the 15th July, at the early age of 29 years, has caused genuine and widespread regret. Her passing at an early age has left a void in the family circle. Her friends and relatives extend their sincere sympathy to her bereaved mother, sisters and brothers in their great loss. The interment took place at Askeaton Abbey. Rev. Father Lynch, P.P., Kilcornan, officiated at the graveside.

Long days and nights she bore
great pain,
Waiting for cure, but all in vain;
In patience she suffered, in silence she bore,
Until God called her home to suffer no more.

PRINTING—When about to order Printing of any kind, ask at the LIMERICK LEADER Office for Quotations. "Twill pa ✓ you to do so

A BEAU

The white b
to be admired
is extremely
fly does as m (writes our pondent). The
lated appeara
can now be se
over cabbage
do great harm
eggs on the
which soon
maggots which
to a veil leavi
most cases.

A spray can ist's shop to a
the outside l
deal effectively

WOMAN STR

When Mrs. C
Street, Kilma
along Lord I
her child, a l
ainst a house
on the head,
which necessit
M. J. O'Con
whose care she
home. The ch