Replying to the Justice, the Superintendent said the defendant had been sentenced to three months imprisonment for the larceny of a bicycle in 1942.

The Justice bound over the defendant in his own bail.

INDIAN RIOTS

DISCUSSION AT LAHORE CONFERENCE

As the leaders of the Indian and Pakistan States gathered in Lahore to-day to discuss the position as regards Punjab, it was learned that the communal strifes had spread to the North-Western Frontier, according to messages from New Delhi to-day.

These messages contained information that the two Dominions represented at Lahore would seek representation on the eleven nation Japanese Peace Treaty Conference in Washington this autumn. It was pointed out that the British Empire voting strength would be considerably increased should India, Pakistan and South Africa be admitted.

DIED FROM INJURIES

INQUEST ADJOURNED

Mr. J. S. McNeice, solr., Deputy Coroner, held an inquest at the County Infirmary yesterday into the death of a 75-years-old farmer, James Foley, Lickadoon, County Limerick, who died on Wednesday, following injuries sustained when struck by a lorry.

The deceased was walking along the road at Carramore when he apparently attempted to cross to the other side and came into collision with a passing lorry. He was removed to hospital and never regained consciousness.

Evidence of identification and medical evidence having been given, the inquest was adjourned.
