

Charleville, the Irish
me, a fine
ncing was
of Mrs.
was loudly
pipe exhib-
Rea with
er hearers.
h Class in
ndering of Ardpatrick
of Irish

THE DAY

y enjoyable
re loud in
programme.
the organ-
achta, the
ughout the
forward in
shows the
at can be
ne to give
its native
language
that can
the nations

BUDGET

£20,000 will
r the pro-
periods of
before the
ate. State
f the pro-
lained: "It
e that man

Harnett a veterinary surgeon. All are sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. M.
Harnett, New Street, Abbeyfeale.
The late Mr. T. O'Neill-Lane, a distinguished journalist and one of the first to compile an Irish-English Dictionary, was uncle of Mr. T. M.
Harnett.

DEATH OF MISS S. DEAKIN, M.P.S.I.

The death took place some days ago, following a prolonged illness, of Miss S. Deakin, M.P.S.I., Dromcollogher (writes our Drom-collogher correspondent). The deceased lady had built up a successful business in Dromcol-logher and in her professional as well as private capacity was respected and highly popular among a wide circle of friends. During the emergency period she was very prominent in Red Cross circles and gave invaluable aid in the formation and instruction of first aid classes. The interment took place at Dromcollogher New Cemetery and was largely attended.

LIFE-SAVING TESTS AT KILLALOE

Killaloe swimmers were visited last week by two members of the Red Cross Life-Saving Society, who carried out swimming and life-saving tests at the Pier Head (writes our Killaloe correspondent).
Certificates will be awarded in due

merce has received from different Commi-
culture in Munster
that they will attend
conference in Limer-
bacon curing industry
ber has asked the Agriculture to attend
ence, no date for the
which has yet been
Minister's Private S-
intimated that Mr. S-
sider the matter whe-
official business perm-
so.

LIMERICK WORKERS

—oo—

TELEGRAM TO QUARTERS

On behalf of the
men, drivers and co-
following telegram wa-
to the strike headqua-
lin:—"Be assured
support from Limeric-
ers. Prior to local
had unanimously ple-
port to majority decis-
ballot."

LEG CUT OFF BY MILL

James Mason, a 1
ourer, of Ballygann
Co. Kerry, had