

plaintiff did not to her clothing described. It was to point out that erected under a t. it was the n of the defen- o them in proper eared to admit re liable to exer- care that the ards and poles d out without roperty but sub- onus had been erection of "wet ll standards con- call evidence co- d been done in uld then submit a third party in signs, was not defendant Board. ey said he was standards for the k. He recalled tion of the pole present action. of the standard After he had n the pole, other along and paint e pole, one man ear the ground had finished his icular pole, he paint' notice, e standard with knew that two irected on this s position at a could not say, a who succeeded le had left these ad put them.

SION.

had heard Mr. position of the regards reason- scharge of their s in maintaining e Justice com- milarity of the with that of the held that there on the part of rd to take the ble precautions; old that against askey, who, ne d erected the . If it was a or third parties s off, the E.S.B. e precautions to see roperty was safe- signs put on e circumstances, he e plaintiff. He was very much ould give a de- xpenses.

and machinemen.
"The Irish Emigrants' Resettle- ment Organisation and the Employ- ers' Emigrant Labour Bureau were formed early this year for purpose of effecting some really practical work towards the solv- ing of emigration and of ex- posing its dangers to the individual, the family and the com- munity as a whole. Any further information may be obtained from the hon. sec., 40 Kincora Road, Clontarf, Dublin. Telephone, 35659."

DEATH OF MR. A. J. EGAN

With very deep and sincere regret we chronicle the demise of Mr. Andrew J. Egan, a highly esteemed and respected citizen, who passed away yesterday in the Mater Hospital, Dublin, following an operation.

The late Mr. Egan, who was a native of Ballymackeogh, Newport, Co. Tipperary, was closely connec- ted with the commercial life of Limerick for over half a century, and for close on 30 years he was Limerick agent for the Lady's Well Brewery, Cork. By his straight- forward disposition and adherence to strict business principles he com- manded the confidence and respect of all who had ever come in contact with him.

Possessing a keen intellect and being widely read, the deceased had a great grasp of world affairs in general, and his conversation was always conducted on a high intel- lectual plane. He was a raconteur, too, of note, and his repertoire of stories contained many that were certain to provoke genuine laughter.

An ardent and exemplary Catholic, the late Mr. Egan was, in a quiet and unobtrusive way, a great social worker. By his death Limerick has lost a very worthy citizen, and deep sympathy is tendered to his widow and relatives in their bereavement.

The remains will arrive by road in Limerick to-night at 8 o'clock, and the funeral will take place to- morrow from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery at the conclusion of Solemn Requiem Mass, which will be celebrated at 10.30 o'clock.

LONDON TALKS

The Anglo-Irish talks in London are expected to end to-day. They have been in progress several weeks and it is understood that a report on the outcome will be sub- mitted to the Government to- morrow.

Justice — There are very few places, now, which are not frequen- ted by the public.

Mr. O'Donovan told the Justice that when the defendant took drink he acted in a very peculiar fashion. The method of larceny and the trend of the whole thing was not very intelligent. The place was a public place and when the defend- ant took the articles he left them on the side of the road, which showed that his action was not that of a clever criminal.

In reply to the Justice, the Super- intendant read a list of several charges preferred against the de- fendant in the past. In 1943 he got three months in jail on a larceny charge; and in 1945 he got six months in all on larceny charges; and in 1947 he appeared again in Court on similar charges and was sent to jail for three months.

SOMETHING WENT WRONG.

Inspector Pender said that the defendant was a labourer by occu- pation and up to a few years ago he was well conducted. Something then went wrong with him and he started on a career of crime.

The defendant pleaded with the Justice to give him a chance.

The Justice said that people had to be protected and this sort of thing could not be tolerated. He would send him to jail for six months with hard labour on each of the present charges, the senten- ces to run concurrently. He warned the defendant that if he appeared before him (Justice) again on simi- lar charges he would take deposi- tions and return him for trial to the Circuit Court.

SUDDEN DEATH OF YOUTH

While running, in playful mood, with a companion in the vicinity of the Sarsfield Bridge, Limerick, last night, a youth named Michael Kelly, 7 Spellacy Square, off Wolfe Tone Street, collapsed and died. He was brought to Barrington's Hospital by members of the St. John Ambu- lance Brigade, where, following a post-mortem, it was stated that death was due to cardiac failure. An inquest was not deemed neces- sary.

The deceased was employed in a city grocery establishment.

MORE MONEY AND GOLD FOR BRITAIN.

Details are being arranged in South African Government circles for a loan of £76,000,000 to Britain "to buy foodstuffs from South Africa." More gold supplies are also being made available.

MAYOR'S ACTION

—oo—

FOYNES COUNTRY CLUB

The Mayor (Mr. P. O'Connell) has written to the Minister for Public Health and Social Welfare and to the Minister for Industry and Com- merce suggesting that the Foynes Country Club, which is advertised for sale on behalf of the Govern- ment, should be converted into a sanatorium.

The Minister for Industry and Commerce, in acknowledging the Mayor's letter, states that his sug- gestion will be considered. So far a reply has not been received from Dr. Ryan.

PRESENTATION TO GARDA CHIEF

On the occasion of his retirement from the Civic Guards, Chief Supt. Jeremiah Murphy, who has been in charge of the Leix-Offaly Division since 1941, received a presentation from the officers and men of the division, at Maryborough. Chief Supt. Murphy was for a number of years head of the Garda Force in Limerick, where he was very popular with the Civic Guards and the public. A native of County Cork, Mr. Murphy had seen active service with the I.R.A. in the Anglo- Irish War.

FLEMING IN PRISON HOSPITAL

A Belfast message received this afternoon states that David Fleming, who has been on hunger and thirst strike for the past 28 days, was removed to the prison hospital during the week-end. His condition is described as very serious.

It is stated that the Belfast Minister for Home Affairs has re- fused permission for a Dublin specialist to examine Fleming.

THE DAIL

The Dail will re-assemble on Wednesday next after the summer recess. It is expected that the writs for the three bye-elections— Dublin, Waterford and Tipperary— will be moved that day.

PEARS 1/- EACH

Good sized home pears are fetching 1/- each in Dublin. In that city on Saturday lettuces made 2½d. per head.