

ages, in
during the e surveys
cal maps,
edly exist
and had

PAUL

nder the
k Council
ncent de
Chamber
day next,
g the an-
izens for
ociety to
activities
inaugural
o a very ribed and that the
rthcoming
eral.

CHEMES.

e to the
on Com-
ear 1947/
ecial non-
cover in-
ble from
st March, fortnight's mission at Ballyagran and Colmanswell last summer. Relatives present included the newly professed novice's mother and sister, also an aunt and uncle.

Brother Callistus will now continue his studies at St. Michael's Retreat, Dankeith, Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, the new house of the Passionist Fathers, which was solemnly opened by the Bishop of Galloway at the beginning of this month, and of which Rev. Father Fabian, C.P., a native of Offaly, is Rector. Many relatives, friends and old school mates have wired their congratulations and good wishes.

FATAL SEIZURE

After returning home from threshing operations on the farm of Mr. Vincent Hederman, The Glen, Ballingarry, Mr. Denis Treacy, labourer (60), married, of Knockflerna, had a fatal seizure and died almost immediately (writes our Ballingarry correspondent). Spiritual and Medical aid was requisitioned and an inquest was not deemed necessary. The deceased was highly respected and his unexpected death was a great shock to his family and friends. He took an active part in the Local Security Force Unit, Ballingarry, and never missed a roll call.

very brilliant secondary school course, having been highly placed in the intermediate certificate honours list in 1946, as well as matriculating that year. He has now been called to training as a result of the high place he secured in this year's leaving certificate (honours) examination. Also a successful entrant in the examination for C.I.E. clerkships (1947), he had actually taken up an appointment in Dublin prior to his call to training. He received his early education at Colmanswell N.S. and subsequently at the Christian Brothers' Schools, Rathluirc. His many friends wish him continued success in the pursuance of his adopted career.

SEEKING RELATIVES IN LIMERICK

The Mayor (Mr. P. O'Connell) has received a letter from Mr. J. H. Harrigan, promotional salesman, South Portland, Maine, U.S.A., who is seeking information about possible relatives in Limerick. Mr. Harrigan states that his father, John Harrigan (or Horigan), was born in Limerick about 1846-7. The Mayor would appreciate any information that would help Mr. Harrigan in his quest.