

the erection of a swimming pool at Corbally. He called for three cheers for the Castleconnell team.

Mr. Stanley Bowyer at the Compton Organ, reaped some of the night's honours with his Community Sing Song.

A capable M.C. was Mr. Whitty, Chairman of the Limerick Camogie Board.

FATAL SEIZURE

—oo—

DEATH OF CO. LIMERICK TEACHER

While cycling on Saturday to Tipperary to see his wife, who was ill in Hospital, Mr. Patrick Noonan, assistant teacher at Garrydoolis N.S., County Limerick, collapsed on the road near Oola. Spiritual and medical aid was summoned, and he died in a very short time.

MUST NOT LOITER ON FOOTPATHS

Civic Guards in Ennis are taking steps to ensure that persons will not loiter on footpaths outside the two local Cinemas and cause obstruction. At the Ennis speaking very highly of the cautious and capable manner in which the Fire Brigade coped with the outbreak.

GONE TO ROME

—oo—

BISHOP TO VISIT FATHER

The Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. left the Shannon Airport early hours of this morning for Rome for the purpose of paying ad limina visit to the Holy See. He was seen off from the airport by Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan, District Secretary.

The Bishop was to have left Saturday afternoon, but the circumstances by which he was to travel were not able to keep to schedule.

BLACK MARKET DEALS CHRISTMAS

Reports from several parts of England show that black market deals for the reaping of extra profits at Christmas are very numerous. Not only poultry, but cattle and pigs are being bought and sold in advance towards this end.
