

me for Bruree. replied that when heme the County lered the best ing Bruree was by ion of the Kilmal- as found, however, lock supply itself ned of. However, Bruree was being ed and a full oming.

he was afraid a e water supply county would be- nants for lack of What, he asked, with regard to plied that, bit by were being sur- ere was no doubt at ore should have a oply. The delay e difficulty in get- arce.

, by way of notice steps, if any, have olement the under- by the County ide the village of n adequate water plied that he had er for a report on me. Last year Mr. l attention to the Surveyor had had n having a pump existing well, Mr. timated that the ure supply system lmeedy, complete tion and reservoir,

The geological ne matter was not

KILMEEDY.

there was re- unk at Kilmeedy y 24 hours.

rose (the Acting) said the pump or four months. cost very little. was already in nds and its sink- cated the digging

BRIDGE

With a return to dry weather, the Carnival at the O'Dwyer Bridge proved a popular success and is attracting large crowds each night. The Carnival is excellently organised and provides plenty of fun and amusement for everybody.

To-morrow afternoon there is a special feature—a men's perambulator race—with a substantial prize for the winner. The big event commences at 3.30 from William Street corner to the Carnival grounds. All the popular features are included in the amusements offered to visitors to the Carnival.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRIETT O'DONNELL

The death of Mrs. Harriett O'Donnell, widow of the late Mr. P. E. O'Donnell, solicitor, Glentworth St., Limerick, which took place yesterday in a Dublin Nursing Home, has been learned of with genuine regret and sorrow.

The deceased lady, who was born in Croom Castle—the residence of the Lyons family—took a prominent and active part in charitable and cultural activities in her younger days. She was held in very high esteem and regard, and her passing has severed a link with a generation that played its full part in the promotion of the common good. To her highly respected son, Mr. T. E. O'Donnell, solicitor, and the other members of the family, we tender our deepest sympathy.

GREYHOUND KILLED WHILE TRAINING

While undergoing training on the lands of Mr. Michael Hayes, Ballykildea, Killaloe, a young greyhound, his property, crashed into a fence and was instantaneously killed.

no tenders were received for such was only fitting tha- bute to the work doing.

"DOING GREAT"

Father Lee said th- was doing great wor- actually doing extra- interests of vocatio- outside of his ordina-

Mr. O Tuathaigh

Smalle took a very g- his work, and he- Father Lee that he w- work outside of his- interests of their so- deserved any tribute- bers would pay him.

Ald. Hartney—I th- also pay tribute to- who was also an exce-

C.E.O.—I would lik- much I appreciate pe-thing that has been- progress that has bee- is due to the staff a- we are very fortuna- very good team to- work required.

TRIBUTE TO C.

Continuing, the C- there was one thing- to express and that- lent Committee whic- under. He was over- staff and during that- worked in harmony, that the Committee- him to do was left t- any further interfer- Committee. For the- had been made, he- say that a great dea- due to the Committe- not wish for a better- under. The best p- was the fact that- better jobs going sin- Limerick but he had- move as he was very- here.

The Chairman sa- would place on recor- paid to their officials.

TENDERS AP.

A letter was re- Department approv-