FATAL SEIZURE

DEATH OF CO. LIMERICK TEACHER

While cycling on Saturday to Tipperary to see his wife, who was ill in Hospital, Mr. Patrick Noonan, assistant teacher at Garrydoolis N.S., County Limerick, collapsed on the road near Oola. Spiritual and medical aid was summoned, and he died in a very short time.

The late Mr. Noonan had been in indifferent health for some time and an inquest was not deemed necessary. He had taught for many years in Garrydoolis N.S. and was extremely popular both with the pupils and people of the parish. Sincere sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife and little children.
