TRIBUTE TO DEAD GAEL

At Cusack Park, Ennis, on Sunday, prior to the Clare County senior hurling contest between Bodyke and Clarecastle (writes our Ennis correspondent), players and spectators observed a two minutes silence as a tribute to the memory of Christy S. Power, Ennis, a native of Clarecastle, and a consistent supporter of the local team.
"Christy," as he was called by innumerable friends, was known all over Clare as a stalwart supporter of Gaelic games, and at one time played with Clarecastle. As a further tribute to his memory, members of the team wore white jerseys with black bands when playing against Bodyke. Go ndeanaidh

DEATH OF EX-N.T.

The death took place last week of Mrs. Ellen Mullane, ex-N.T., Glin. Deceased was a general favourite and her demise is deeply regretted by her son (Mr. Joseph Mullane) and by her sisters, Mrs.
Mary Walshe and Mrs. James Power. She was widow of the late Mr. Daniel Mullane, ex-N.T., and daughter of the late Mr. Con Mullane, prominent member of the first Land League Committee, 1880, of which Rev. Fr. Michael Malone, P.P., was president, and of the late Mrs. Mary Dore Mullane, Glin.
Deepest sympathy is offered her bereaved relatives.
