WAS NOTED ATHLETE

The death of Mr. J. Donovan, Ardnamoher, Galbally, farmer, took place while he was attending a meeting of the Kilross Co-operative Dairy Society.

A well known farmer and a keen sportsman, he was a staunch supporter and member of the Galbally Coursing Club, and was a noted athlete some 35 years ago, having competed successfully at several important Munster sports arenas. He was Chairman of the Galbally Fianna Fail Cumann.

REFEREE NEARLY LYNCHED

An effort to lynch the referee of a football match at Bari, Italy, was foiled yesterday by police, who fired over the heads of an infuriated crowd which invaded the playing pitch. The referee jumped on to a grand stand, where he was surrounded by police who fought for his life for over thirty minutes.
