

MINE DANGER.

(Telegraph To-day.)
age from Tientsin, dated to-of local steamers frequently nes in the Gulf of Shantung osition dan erous to naviga-

PLESHIP READY.

(Telegraph To-day.)
d the Earl of Selborne crossed ortsmouth to-day and visited p, Commonwealth, which has cial trials and is ready for sea.

ON TO MR. THOMAS LOUGHREY.

Thomas J. Loughrey, Chief ndent's Office, G.S. and W. recipient of a handsome presenlway colleagues and friends on s marriage.

present were—Messrs. James le, E. J. Long, J. A. Burke, P.
Wilson, D. O'Dwyer, D. M.
Wilson, A. Harty, M. E. Wall, Eden, T. Tuite, P. Cullinan, W. Baldwin, J. Shanahan, M.
McNamara, H. Powell, J. Maher, L. Levers, C. E. Toole, P. B.
P. Whelan, J. Ford, C. O.

(Mr. Wilson) in making the red to Mr. Loughrey's many ocial and official, and said that d happy gathering testified to in which he was held by his as by the public generally. Mr. y and attention to duty had prominence in the service, so is comrades were proud of him that he had entered into the ny, they joined in wishing him y every happiness.

id it was a pleasure to him to oliment to Mr. Loughrey. He all that the chairman had said could not wish for a more able in accepting the presentation of a suite of drawing-room furni-pressed the great pleasure it o, and said the occasion was one ain bright in his future life. He nking on behalf of himself and ll the friends for their valuable wishes.

Mr. Loughrey entertained those served in the Railway Dining h a number of songs and speeches A vote of thanks was accorded and her assistants for the excel-hich the catering was done.

Obstructs a School Attendance Officer.

At to-day's adjourned Petty Sessions Patrick Barton was summoned for obstructing Mr.
Alphonsus O'Halloran, one of the city school attendance officers, in the discharge of his duty.
Barton having now expressed sorrow for his folly on the 13th, was admonished. The Bench wished it to be understood that similar cases coming before them would be severely dealt with.

FUNERAL OF MR. PATRICK LANE.

The funeral of the late Mr. Patrick Lane, of Quinpool, County Clare, father of Mr. Thomas Lane, vice-chairman, Limerick Guardians, and Mr. Patrick Lane, D.C., took place yesterday from Parteen R. C. Church, after the celebration of Requiem High Mass, the interment being at the family burial ground at Thomple Maughal.
The funeral was very large and representative.

The following clergy were present—Rev.
Fathers Lane, O'Rea, O'Dwyer, Hogan, Wallace, Hayes, Russell, Hennessy, Hartigan.

The chief mourners included—Messrs John, Patrick and Thos Lane [sons], M. Lane [nephew] Rev. Father Lane and Dr. Jeremiah Lane [grandsons], James and William O'Connor [sons-in-law], Masters Patrick, Thomas and Joseph Lane, Thomas and Joseph Collopy [grandchildren], Masters James Humphreys, Michael Collopy, Patrick Lane and Thomas Lane [grandsons], Dr. McGrath, Messrs Hurley, J. Madden, John Lane, and P. Madden.

THE LATE MR. S. B. ROBINSON.

The remains of the late Mr. Samuel B. Robinson, Managing Clerk of Mr. R. L. Brown, Land Agent, Limerick, whose sad demise in Dublin we recorded in our last issue, were removed this morning at nine o'clock from Richmond Hospital for interment at Mount Jerome Cemetery. Mr.
Ernest Brown, Mr. W. L. Scanlan, J.P., and relatives of the deceased were present.

CAR ACCIDENT IN WILLIAM STREET.

While crossing the roadway in William street this afternoon, William Magwood, Sarsfield street, was accidentally knocked down by a car.
He sustained some minor facial injuries.

SAD DEATH OF A CHILD.

While its mother was momentarily absent the little child of Mr. Madden, gardener to Mr. R.
Lane Joynt, got near the fire and was so badly burned that it died shortly after. The greatest sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

The practice indulged in by boys of for luggage has become so annoying to Railway authorities in Limerick, as they have been obliged to step in to try and its continuance. To-day, at Petty Session youths, named Patrick Kirwan, Patrick S and Francis Healy, were prosecuted for the Great Southern and Western Railwa pany's premises on the 18th ult. tout luggage. Evidence of their presence on having been tendered by Isaac Rea, the dants were cautioned. Mr. B. Bar solicitor, appeared for the Company.

REV. SMYTH PIGOTT INHIB (By Telegraph To-day.)

In connection with the recent alle against the Rev. George Herbert Pigott, Rector of Kingston, Seymour, So it is officially announced to-day that in quence of the report of the Commis Inquiry the Bishop of Bath and W accordance with the provisions of the B Act, 1898, has appointed the Rev. M. of Wrington, Bristol, as curate, and is the incumbent from performing the ecc cal duties of the parish.

A LIMERICK OWNER WITH RIGHTS.

The estate of Robert Ievers, sita Golden Vale, Co. Limerick, has been for sale. There was insufficient bid Mr. Justice Ross, in the Land Judge yesterday, the property being worth £5.
The owner was without any rights, so the Judge, as his tenure had expired, proposed to let to the owner for a year the settlement of the matter at a propo rent to be settled by the Receiver.

As regards the other lands, he thou Receiver ought to be able to get offe persons prepared to take them for grazi he would therefore direct that they sh get by him for that purpose.

The King has been criticised by the Reformation Society for attending Hig at Marienbad.

Mr. John Cleeve, a horsedealer of T was thrown and killed while summi doctor to a sick woman.

The General Court of the Bank of I has resolved that a half-year's dividen rate of 4½ per cent. be made, without d of income tax.

About midnight on Thursday a stea from the King's yacht Osborne was collision with another boat in Par harbour.