

POTATO MARKET DEVELOPMENT

LIMERICK Civic Trust, in conjunction with AnCO, had begun the redevelopment of the Limerick Potato Market. The market, which was opened in 1843, is reputed to be the site where the Danes landed and settled in Limerick.

At present there are twelve AnCO trainees working on the project with foreman, Noel Malone, and it is expected that the workforce will increase to twenty during the coming weeks.