

n Fuller, P.P. Kilcummin, has been anointed, and appointed to the pastoral office by the Ballyunion.

is of Mrs. Creedon, wife of a farmer Killinamartyra, who lived to attain the age of 107 years, were consigned to a resting place in the Ballyvourey ground on Monday.

Police Office yesterday, Cornelius J. an accountant recently employed at returned for trial on a charge of £8 11s. 6d. by means of a forged bullock, which has been calved and the lands of Grove, Fethard, the Mr. R. Burke, M.F.H., was placed on a rail outside Fethard Market-house and weighed 17½ cwt.

any is about being established in lighting the town with electricity. It is deemed too far out of the town to be economically.

consumption Ireland requires 250 barrels per hour, and Irish millers are doing some 450 sacks per hour. At the close during 1904, in two years more output will be forthcoming.

successful sale of work was held on 6th inst., in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, in aid of the funds for the lady in China supported by the Y.W.C.A. £24 was taken, and the expenses were Stymon District Council, have decided to employ their Engineer to submit a report on the condition of the cessworks. Relieving Officer said that a case of fever, which occurred in the district, was attributed to announcement that the steamer Valentia of the Shipping Company, will cease to ply to Schull, Bantry, Castletown, Sneem, Ahiriveen, Dingle, etc. after the 25th only be regarded as an indication of a decline in commerce on the Southern announcement from Kansas city concerning the death of the Rev. Daniel Costello, eldest son of Mr. John Costello, of Croom, Co. Limerick, which took place yesterday last. Deceased was only in his 33rd year, of which he spent in the sacred Collins, County Council representative for Abbeyfeale, Tournafulla, and Mountion, and Mr. Edmond Sheehy, representative of Atha, Templeglantine and Division, have intimated to the electors in the respective divisions their intention of supporting the County Council.

Following contracts, being the lowest to have been accepted by the Rathkeale: P. Roche, Irish bacon, 5½d. per lb.; best beef and mutton, 8d. per lb.; best white and brown bread, 4½d. per gallon; J. Magner, best new milk, 30 gallons, 1s. 6d. per gallon; D. O'Shaughnessy, taking 0s.

SHIONABLE.

Widley's popular brother, Mr. Cyril, is very ill suffering from blood poisoning.

Monteagle has returned to London from here he had spent a few days. Lady trative act or his views on matters of policy, but everything will be under the Chief Secretary's control and subject to his approval. If that involves a change then there certainly will be a change (Irish Unionist cheers). He possesses and intends to exercise full powers of supervision and control. If that involves a change that can only be proved by the system of administration to be pursued (more Irish Unionist cheers).

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.

At the Organ Recital at St Mary's Cathedral to-morrow (Friday) evening, "By Babylon's Wave" (Gounod), and "Hymn of S. Patrick" (Muspratt) will be sung by augmented choir with string orchestral accompaniment. At Saturday afternoons recital Mrs. F. Pitt will sing "Turn thee unto me" (Eli), and Mr. R. Evans, "There is a Green Hill" (Gounod).

FORTHCOMING ROYAL MARRIAGE.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

The Press Association learns authoritatively that the marriage of the Princess Margaret of Connaught and Prince Adolphus of Sweden will take place in England and not in Sweden, as has been stated. Definite arrangements have not been made, but it is highly probable the ceremony will take place at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, at the beginning of July.

DEATH OF MRS. M. MATTHEWS.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Minnie Matthews, daughter of our esteemed citizen, Mr. John Byrne of the Crescent and 62 Henry st. The sad event occurred about four o'clock this afternoon at her father's residence. For many years the deceased lady was well-known, and highly respected among a large circle of friends in the city, whose sympathy will be heartily accorded to the bereaved family. The funeral takes place, after High mass from St. Joseph's Church at ten o'clock on Saturday morning.

A DECREE FOR SIXPENCE.

At the Newcastle West Quarter Sessions, before his Honor Judge Adams, K.C., in the action, Timothy Danaher v. Mary Lenihan, for trespass of defendant's cattle and a disputed right, his Honor gave a decree for sixpence.

Mr. Cusson, solr., for plaintiff, and Mr. John Condon, solr., defendant.

BRITISH BARQUE LOST.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Lloyd's Lima telegram, dated yesterday, says the British barque Aldergrove is reported a total loss on Mazorca Island. Further reports state that the first officer and one of the crew were drowned.

THE SULTAN'S RETURN.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Mombasa, Thursday.

The Sultan of Zanzibar has arrived here and leaves for Zanzibar to-day.

(laughter). The bill at the end of for 9 months he never asked or about this money, this £30; he says O'Connell said when the chicken c (laughter).

The case was dismissed.

THE MISSING OVER

Galway Merchant and Overcoat.

(From our own Correspondent)

At the Ennis Quarter Sessions yesterday His Honor Judge Carton, K.C., in which Mr. Michael Crowley, merchant in Galway, sought to recover from the West Clare Railway Company £3 an overcoat.

Mr. W. Healy was for the Rail and Mr. F. G. Kerin for the plaintiff.

The evidence went to show that together with the traveller's box the guard's van at Ennis, but on the train at Miltown the coat was inquiry had been made but the coat had not been traced.

Plaintiff swore that he had no Flynn, the porter at Miltown might have left it in the Galway guard of the train, John Meally, never had the coat in the van at shown that plaintiff travelled by a not the one on which Meally was.

Mr. O'Sullivan, manager of the not customary to put a coat in a van.

His Honor held that the case proved.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

A meeting of the City School Committee was held to-day, Ald. Brennan presiding. Very Rev. T. B. Shanahan, P.P., L. Swain, Rev. D. Shanahan, M. Cregan, Adm.; Mr. John Gui Wm. M. Nolan, Secretary; O'Halloran and Fitzerald.

The Committee were engaged with a number of cases of complaints by parents as to insufficient attendance of children. The children or parents were in explanations were made on the basis of illness, etc. The Committee expressed their determination to enforce the provisions of the Act. In some cases where explanations in some cases were not given, in which the children were not at school, were adjourned and orders were made under observation by the Inspector. On motion of Father Cregan it was decided that in cases of illness of parents or children, if not heard by the Committee in case of illness, they were summoned to attend before the Committee. An order was made to issue against seven people.

THE KING AND QUEEN

(By Telegraph To-day.)
Palma, 1

The King and Queen landed at Palma and drove to places of interest. At the Bishop received their Majesties.

GOLF.