

ent gainful employment to local e Leader hailed the development ines and Stevie was heartily l on in his initiative.

ther tests of the car were not as some even bordering on the nd the project eventually petered out.
chocolate crumb factory, another of ms went down the drain.

D OF ITS CLASS

Perfect —the latest Ford product

behaviour, work well done, smartness and efficiency, the 10 h.p. "Perfect" goes the top of its class.
ange an informative demonstration at your ce—no cost
ation.

Single Entrance Saloon £185

Double Entrance Saloon £195

ALL PRICES AT WORKS

THE LIMERICK MOTOR
WORKS, LTD.,

UPPER WILLIAM ST., LIMERICK.
Telegrams—"Motors, Limerick." Telephone 182.

When Ted Russell was Mayor of Limerick in 1954 he got together previous holders of the office going back to the early 1920's and hosted a dinner in Cruise's Hotel in their honour. This highly historical photograph resulted. Ted, who with the late Dan Bourke had the honour of serving as Mayor on five occasions, is the only survivor of the group. Back row: Stevie Coughlan, Patrick O'Connell, John Carew, Gerard B. Dillon, Michael Hartney, John C. Hickey, James McQuane, Kevin Bradshaw, Michael B. O'Malley. Front row: Patrick Donnellan, James Reidy, Michael J. Keyes, Ted Russell, Stephen O'Mara, Patrick F. Quinlan, Desmond O'Malley.