

Tony presents his memoir to Taoiseach Brian Cowen

By JOHN HOGAN

A FORMER mayor of Limerick, senator and registrar in Mary Immaculate College for almost 30 years travelled to Dublin to give the Taoiseach a copy of his autobiography.

Tony Bromell presented Brian Cowen with Rian mo Chos ar Ghaineamh an tSaoil, a memoir of his life both inside and outside politics.

The title of the book translates as Tracing my Feet through the Sands of Life.

The book details the changes he has seen in Limerick since he was born in Thomondgate in 1932. Mr Bromell has been a member of Fianna Fail all his life, and was a member of Limerick City Council for 17 years.

Rian mo Chos ar Ghaineamh an tSaoil, written in Irish, is published by Cló Iar-Chonnachta and is available in bookshops and from www.cic.ie

Former city councillor and mayor, Tony Bromell presents An Taoiseach Brian Cowen with a copy of his book, Rian mo Chos ar Ghaineamh an tSaoil

KO
Kennedy
Come Meet Our New Team Providing You With
Friday Night
CELTIC R
Saturday
TEDDY
Sunday 6 IDOL

Brian Peters Promotions

Ladbrokes.com

Andy Lee

15 - 1 (12 KO's)

W

Willie

(The Gladiator)

Gibbs

20 - 3 (16 KO's)

