MAYORALTY

THE new Mayor of Limerick was fifty year old national school teacher, Councillor John Danagher. He was proposed by Alderman Steve Coughlan and seconded by Cllr. Paddy Kelly and he defeated Cllr F Glasgow, the Fianna Fáil nominee, by nine votes to eight. The outgoing mayor was Cllr Frances Condell who did not seek re-election. Warm and sincere tributes were paid to Cllr Condell by the members of the council for her outstanding work during her term of office and she was greeted with tremendous applause from the crowded galleries.
