Limerick's New Mayor Elected By Nine Votes To Seven

Mr. C. P. Keyes, N.T., the only Labour representative, was elected Limerick's new Mayor by nine votes to seven votes for Mr. Frank Glasgo at the City Council meeting on Monday night. The outgoing Mayor, Ald. G. E. Russell, T.D., did not seek re-election.

The new Mayor is 52 years of age, and is a native of Limerick. He is a solicitor and has been a member of the City Council for 20 years. He has previously held the office of City Councillor and has been a member of the City Representative Council.

Minister Will Open New Phone Exchange To-Morrow

Though there is a complete absence of official information, it is known that the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, Mr. Nial Blaney, T.D., is coming to Limerick to-morrow to formally declare open the new telephone exchange in Roche's Street.

Horticultural Certificates Presented

Under the auspices of the County Agricultural Institute, a presentation of horticultural certificates was made at the City Hall on Monday evening. The certificates were presented to the following: Mr. John O'Connell, Mr. James O'Dea, Mr. John Murphy, and Mr. Michael O'Brien.

Livestock Judging At Ballylanders

A livestock judging competition was held at Ballylanders on Sunday afternoon. The judging was carried out by a panel of judges consisting of Mr. James O'Connell, Mr. Michael O'Mahony, and Mr. John O'Brien.

The Sovereigns Were Missing

A theft of the sovereigns was reported at the City Hall on Monday morning. The sovereigns were discovered to be missing from the safe in the City Hall.

Why Hinds Wanted To Come To Ireland

It was stated in a London Court yesterday that Alfred Hinds, the man who escaped from his police escort on Monday, wanted to come to Ireland to institute proceedings against a Police Inspector.

Why Not Expenditure?

The expenditure on the new telephone exchange was discussed at the City Council meeting. It was pointed out that the cost of the exchange would be a burden on the ratepayers. The cost of the exchange was estimated at £10,000.

Fires In Goliath Bog N

The Limerick Fire Brigade attended a fire in Goliath Bog on Wednesday. The fire occurred in a boggy area and the cause of the fire is under investigation.

Lifeguards For Clare Resorts

Lifeguards were appointed by the City Manager to look after the safety of the swimmers at the Clare resorts. The lifeguards were: Mr. John O'Connell, Mr. James O'Dea, and Mr. Michael O'Brien.

Bugsy's Ballylanders

A meeting of the Ballylanders club was held at the City Hall on Monday evening. The club was formed to promote the interests of the people of Ballylanders.

O'Malley's Flour Mill

A flour mill was opened by Mr. James O'Malley on Tuesday. The mill is located in the city centre and is expected to provide employment for 50 people.

TOTTES SALE SUNDAY FRIDAY N