

3.

MAYOR

Kevin Bradshaw became mayor after a lapse of just one year. This would not happen again until 1990, when Paddy Madden got the chain two years out of three - with a gap of a year.

Kevin Bradshaw was proposed by independent member, P J Donellan, supported by Steve Coughlan, the outgoing mayor.

→ 1951

MAYOR

Cllr Desmond J O'Malley, solicitor, was unanimously re-elected as mayor; he was one of the youngest to hold that office.

→ 1942

Limerick Chronicle

9/6/92