

ry's Rain-Proof

nt, J. J. DELANY, 125, Geor

PETTY SESSIONS. YESTERDAY.

(From our own Correspondent.)
P. J. Linnane (presiding), M t, James Kennedy, and W. J.

NO RENT.

rent collector, asked for, and was n to issue summonses against bourer's cottages in the Ennis r non-payment of rent.

11 STREET TERMAGRANTS.

y, Old Mill Street, had Anne same locality, summoned for satening language. Case was nonth with a warning.

LINER ASHORE AND LEAKING.

Telegraph To-day.)

ec agent telegraphs that the orian, Montreal for Liverpool, d position at Cape St. Charles, fog. She is reported to be ance has been sent.

OFF TO GERMANY.

Telegraph To-day.)

r of Connaught left London toe German army manoeuvres.

CIALS ON HOLIDAY.

Telegraph To-day.)

members and friends of the ars of Commerce left by special , en route to Belgium on a visit sels, and Antwerp to-day.

LINE to South Africa. Roy a Weekly Sailings. Fast passages ation. Reduced fares. Specia r journey between Ireland and hampton. Apply to the Manager Co., London, or to Local Agent

ITEMS FROM KILKEE.

Tableaux Vivants at Moore's Hotel, Kilkee, have proved a most enjoyable success. They were arranged by Mr. H. L. Phelps and friends, and the proceeds are intended to be devoted to the encouragement of sports at that watering place.

The following fines were inflicted at the last Town Court at Kilkee James McCarthy, indecency, 2s. 6d. and costs, or 14 days. Thomas McGrinn, a like offence, 2s. 6d. and costs, or seven days. Bridget Walsh, riotous behaviour, 1s. and costs. Michael Walsh, riotous behaviour, 2s. 6d. and costs. Cornelius Deloughery, drunk and incapable, 5s. and costs, or seven days. Mary Meany, drunk, 1s. and costs. Sergeant Hourigan, Constable Tobin, Acting Sergeant Neazor proved the cases.

At the petty sessions, Mr. Ambrose Hall presiding (solus), the following cases were dealt with:—

Pat Lynch, Rehy, drunk, fined 1s and costs Defendant said it was his first offence, and he had come 11 miles to attend court. Thomas Na-h, Fear, drunk, fined 2s 6d and costs or seven days.
He did not appear. Andrew McManon and Pat Carmody, of Moveen East, drunk, fined 1s each and 1s costs. Several men, for allowing donkeys to stray, had to pay 1s each and costs, and some cases were adjourned owing to the absence of a second magistrate.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

On Thursday a little girl named Margaret M'Cann, aged fourteen, daughter of Mr. Edward M'Cann, a Limerick man, was out walking with some companions at the West End, she and her sister being on a visit to Kilkee. The girl seems to have been in advance of the others and got on the cliffs near McDonnell Terrace. She evidently missed her footing and fell to the jagged rocks below, sustaining serious injuries to the head and body. She was looked for immediately and was found in the condition stated by a lady who sent for aid and Dr. Hickey was quickly in attendance.
She was conveyed to her lodgings and everything possible was done for the sufferer who, however, succumbed to her injuries on Thursday evening.
Great sympathy is expressed with her bereaved parents in their sorrow.

CALLED HIM A MEAN BLAC GUARD.

(From our own Correspondent.)

At Newcastle-west Petty Sessions, T Sullivan summoned Richard Collins, Bally for assault and threatening language.

Mr. J. Condon, solr., appeared for plair
The evidence was that defendant fc plaintiff into Mr. Murphy's, in Goat assaulted him, and accused him of not g purchase his land under the Land Act, at that he was a mean blackguard.

The case was adjourned for three mont

A PARCEL OF COWARDS

At Newcastle West Petty Sessions, Co Driscoll charged Maurice Drowley and Riordan with drunkenness and fighting.

Mr. Bierne, D.I., said he saw those me were unable to fight, but trying to tes other, and a crowd of cowards making them, and no effort made to put them a
They were fined 5s. and costs each.

THE SWINE FEVER ACT

(From our own Correspondent.)

A Glin on Wednesday, Mrs. Bridget I was charged with an infringement Swine Fever Act, after due notice been on her.

Major Kiggel spoke of the cost of the s ration of the Swine Fever Act, and remark those whose pigs were killed were often very much more than the value for them.

Defendant said that it was hard on woman to have to pay a fine, and that unable to do so.

The Chairman said even the poor mu the Laws. She was sorry now when caught. A fine of 5s. and 1s. 6d. co imposed.

A Bill has been introduced into the I Legislature making it an offence punish a fine of £100 to tip a waiter, chef, or

New Tea Rooms.

7 OPEN AT 3 GEORGE STREET,

J. LAIR

CHEMISTS, DRUGGISTS