without a heavy fine; states that there is no rule which will liable an employer to replace a man at Father Oregan tried to settle the matter for The three weeks' mission given at the united parishes of Clonmeagh and Knockaderry was brought to a very successful close on Sunday evening by Rev. Father Boyle, who delivered a beautiful sermon on perseverance. Papal Benediction was then given.

At the recent Dublin Show the Irish terrier dog, "Ignorant," bred by A. J. Richardson, Tralee, was the only Irish exhibit of this class which secured a second prize, being beaten only by the great English breeders. His owner refused a tempting offer for him.

The Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, R.C. Bishop of Killaloe, paid his first visitation to Miltown Malbay, County Clare, on Sunday last, and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to over 300 children.

Samuel Killeen and Edward Farrell, two servants of the London and North Western Co., engaged at the North Wall service for nearly 40 years, were each presented with a purse of gold by the staff at the station on their retiring on pension last Saturday.

The tenants on the Cagney estate, near Fermoy, have completed agreements for the purchase of their holdings, which were partly first term and non-judicial. The terms were 21 years purchase, which included arrears of rent to 25th March.

Clare County Council will consider at its next meeting a resolution to form a Committee to bring back the fairs to the original dates, and to prevent anything which is at present leading to their "going to ruin."

The Irish terrier, "Rose of Tralee," was purchased by Mr. George Raper, at the recent Cork Show at her scheduled price of £20. She was bred by Mr. Cunningham, Tralee, and her dam "Foxy Norry" was bred by Mr. A. J. Richardson, R.I.C. Tralee. Mr. Raper is regarded as the foremost Irish terrier judge in Europe.

The death is announced of Mr. Edward O'Shaughnessy, London correspondent of the "Irish Independent." He had been in bad health for some time past, and recently in the hope of recuperating, spent six weeks in Cahirciveen, County Kerry, of which he was a native.
His death occurred at Clapham.

The death of Mr. P. McCormack, D.O., occasioned general regret. Though ailing for some time, the end was by no means anticipated as being so near at hand. The deceased was only 53 years of age. He was possessed of a kindly and courteous manner, which made for him hosts of friends. His death took place on Sunday at Pallasgreen.

There has just been established at Ballinagoul near Dungarvan, a summer school for the teaching of Irish. It is under the charge of a capable teacher, and as the district itself is an Irish speaking one, visitors desirous of attaining a knowledge of the language are afforded a rare opportunity in this respect.

Michael Bergin, Nenagh, who has been on a visit to Limerick, complains that he was unable to obtain an Irish made straw hat, or an Irish brewed hop bitters. He instances both as a sample of the poor support given to Irish industries here, and contrasts Limerick with Roscrea, where he was able to get 100 straw hats had he wanted them.
