

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

JAMES F. FITZGERALD

Born at Islanduane, Co. Limerick. Educated at Mungret College, Limerick, and University College, Galway. Restarted and edited "U.C.G. Magazine" in 1913. Teaches Classics and English in Belvedere College, Dublin.

Telegrams—"Carr, Electricians, Cork. Telephone No. 288

J. D. CARR & CO.

James Mitchell, James Fennell.

Electrical Engineers and Contractors.

Electric Light and Power Installations, Oil and Gas Engines, Motors, Radiators, Telephones, Bells, &c. We Charge Wireless and Motor Car Batteries at reasonable prices.

Estimates Free.

Contracts recently carried out—Savoy Cinema, Cork Sanatorium, Buttevant, J. W. Green & Co. Cork Mental Hospital etc., etc.

53 SOUTH MALL, CORK.

Telephone 959.

Established 1876.

Gerald Percival

(T. F. JONES),

The Oldest Established Electrical Firm in Cork
LIGHTING — HEATING — POWER

30 Oliver Plunkett Street

(Next G.P.O.)

That
'WELL-GROOMED' feeling..

... cannot be obtained by "dress" alone. A man's hair can utterly mar his appearance if it is dull, lifeless, straggling, prematurely grey or thin. The well-groomed man prevents all these troubles by rubbing a little Mutesco into his scalp every night—get a bottle to-day and see the difference! 1/9 and 3/3 per bottle.

mutesco