

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine

Volume 1

April-September 1817 (p228)

Death Notices

In October¹ last, at Sierra Leone, Robert Hogan, Esq. LLD his Majesty's Chief Justice and Admiralty judge in that settlement. As a gentleman and scholar, a sincere friend and social companion, Dr. Hogan had no superior. But to describe him solely by those qualities would fall short of his merits. Dr. Hogan had not been many months in his possession of a situation from which he looked forward to honour and emolument, when he was seized with fever (the effect of the climate), which in a few days put a period to his life. He was a native of the county of Limerick in Ireland.

Limerick Chronicle

May 18th 1825

Death Notices

In Rathkeale, at an advanced age, Mrs Hogan mother of the late Hon. Robert Hogan, who filled the place of Chief Justice of Sierra Leone.

¹ Check October 1816 for death notice in local papers.