

MONEY.—We hear that our banks are not very liberal in the way of discounting at present; and that one of them, in particular, may be said to have discontinued taking paper altogether. We are not positive which one it is; but from all accounts, it is neither the Montreal nor Colonial.—Montreal Herald.

COBourg STAR 15 OCT. 1840

MARRIED.

On Friday, the 9th inst., at St. George's Church, Clarke, by the Revd. T. S. Kennedy, A. G. Allan, Esqr., of Bonington, Cobourg, to Charlotte, only daughter of Colonel Cox, C. H. and P. S., commanding at Whitby.

DIED.

On Saturday, the 10th inst., of Measles, Norman, youngest son of Duncan Campbell, Esqr., M. D.

On Tuesday morning last, Mr. George Hart, aged 72, for many years past he held the situation of Clerk in St. Peter's Church of this town.

Same day, in Cobourg, aged 41, James Rogers, an industrious inhabitant of the Town, and a native of Earl, Kent, England.

Opposite the Albion Hotel.

THE SUBSCRIBER begs to inform the Public that he has returned from New York, Quebec and Montreal, where he has been for the last six weeks devoting his time to the selection of his

FALL AND WINTER

SUPPLY OF GOODS.