

ower snow, in the hest score (Lady
Its showed:—Lady
Allman Smith, 90;
White, 64; Captain

Ennis the case was t was necessary that osford as secretary d be inserted in the
and the defending ight to be.

nagh, John Reddan Saturday, 6s. of this cil. The 32 rabbits
d. Defendant hal neil said, "he had try's good."

the Kilrush Petty onday, Mr. Thomas stle, Killimer, was lounty Clare by Mr. ongratulated by the onferred on him.

it has rained in the nission almost, and also This state of nefit to the hay and ance would have a lead. Harvesting is continuous rains.

Rev. Father Larkin, ars has been at the ickbeg, is, owing to alia; his coming debut the universal climate will bri g

at their meeting on fusals from medical inea as remuneration gerous lunatics com-
on their evidence, e were exceptional
th the cases.

on Saturday, Nurse orily informing the ave 5s as remunera-special duty in the f another nurse, and As the meeting was on of the letter was ig 12 Irish acres, on O'Hara, H.M.L., n Ballinacarrow and es from Sligo, was um of £350, with ames Coltery, Sligo £11, and this work purchase, or £30 per

Foley, Ballinvallogh, ected and highly ed the deepest sorrow icere regret amongst ho sympathise with in the bereavement.
at Churchtown, and e character of the of the high regard of the insane at Kil-he medical officer of ard of Guardians at int an attendant to ty. The members osal, on the ground nall to undertake so the making of a new to a future date for horse to the Irish Viceroy, as a viceregal peer, like his predecessor, the Earl of Kenmare.

Lord Fingall, who was in the Imperial Yeomanry in the Boer War, has been a Viceregal official before his appointment as Master of the Horse.
He was State Steward during Earl Spencer's second Viceregency.

At the first Arts Examination held last June by the Royal University, we notice the name of Mr. T. O'Dea, Kildysart, and at an examination held last Thursday for Clerkships in the Provincial Bank of Ireland, Master James Cullinan, son of Mr. Ralph Cullinan, Church street, Ennis, has been successful, and has been appointed to a position in the Cavan branch.

Mr. Edward J. Sullivan, of New York, and American Consul, Trebizond, Turkey, has arrived in the city after an extended tour in Europe, Turkey and Russia, and is a guest at Cruiso's Hotel. Mr. Sullivan is accompanied by his Secretary, Mr. Edward A. Martin. They will sail for New York on September 3rd prox.
Mr. Sullivan is a native of Shanagolden, County Limerick.

An interesting ceremony took place at Nazareth House, Hammersmith, on the Feast of the Assumption, when Miss Margaret O'Dwyer, youngest daughter of Mr. Anthony O'Dwyer, D.C., Annagh, Miltown Malbay, was professed as a Sister of Nazareth, receiving as her name in relation Sister Patrick Joseph. Mr. O'Dwyer's eldest daughter is also a member of this Order.

A partial eclipse of the sun will be visible in Limerick on Wednesday about noon. That is to say, the shadow of the moon will impinge on the surface of the sun, and gradually cover it up until about one o'clock. Only about one-fourth of the great luminary can be seen in crescent form. Smoked or coloured glass should be used in watching the phenomenon. The next eclipses will be in the years 1912 and 1927.

The death is announced of Mr. John Moriarty, merchant, Croom, which occurred at his residence, Croom at 3 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, after a brief illness. The deceased gentleman, who was only 68 years of age, enjoyed good health up to Thursday last. On the night of Thursday, however, he got suddenly ill, and despite all that medical skill could do he passed peacefully away on Sunday evening, to the inexpressible grief of his family, residents and friends. He was a gentleman who led a most exemplary life.

MILLIONAIRE'S SONS CHARGED.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

At the High Court of Justiciary, Edinburgh, to-day, S. Phipps, 30, and Henry Phipps, 25, sons of a wealthy American gentleman, tenant of Beaufort Castle, were tried on the charge of assaulting John Fraser, John Robertson, and John Frazer, salmon fishers, in July last, at Silver Pool, by discharging loaded guns at them, whereby the three were injured. Fraser had the right eye permanently destroyed, and the left one seriously injured. Alternately they were charged with recklessly firing guns.

John Frazer, of Besaune, in cross-examination said they were fishing on the sly. He got 70 guineas compensation and full wages while away from work. John Frazer, of Cruives, said he had been granted an annuity of 32 shillings a week. Proceeding.

RESULT.

Both Phipps were unanimously found not guilty.

DEATH OF A PARLIAMENTARY

CANDIDATE

confirmed the election of Dr. James A. H.
Murray, editor of the "Oxford English Dictionary," to be corresponding member of the Academy of Sciences.

The death took place at Auckland Castle on Saturday, of Miss M. Moule, elder daughter of the Bishop of Durham. Miss Moule, who was 28 years of age, had been an invalid for some time.

A Reuter's Washington telegram says—Mr.
Elwin S. Holmes, ex-assistant statistician of the Department of Agriculture, has been indicted on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Government in connection with the recent cotton scandals.

From their annual examination of the hop gardens of Kent, Sussex, Surrey, Hampshire, Worcester, and Hereford, Messrs Le May, of London, conclude that England will this year produce one of the grandest crops ever put on the market.

A foreign agency occasionally responsible for items that indicate a lively imagination on the part of some of its correspondents, announces that a young girl has died at Constantinople from hydrophobia, caused by the bite of a mouse.

Henry Quin, rivetter, who on Saturday night took passage on a steamer from Aberdeen to Leith, was, on the vessel's arrival at Leith yesterday, found sitting on the grating above the stoke-hole literally roasted to death.

The Colonial Office on Saturday received the following telegram from the Officer administering the Government of the Gold Coast:— Production of gold for the six months ended June 30th, 79,630 ounces; estimated value, £300,600.

The Annual Conference of the Institute of Journalist, was opened at Bournemouth yesterday. Mr. Sandiman, of Glasgow, in his presidential addresses said, in his opinion there was every reason to believe that an Empire wide Journalists Federation, would, before long, be formed.

BOMBS AT BERLIN.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Berlin, Tuesday.

A Sosnovice telegram states that the Chief of the Police at Czenstochau was killed yesterday by a bomb explosion. Some bystanders were severely injured.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Mr. John Porteous, of Edinburgh, was drowned while bathing yesterday, near Crail, on the Fifeshire Coast. The body was carried out to sea.

SHOCKING KERRY TRAGEDY.

On Sunday afternoon the dead body of Elizabeth Jordan, an assistant school teacher was found in her lodging at a village near Ardfert. Her face was greatly discoloured, and it was found that her neck was broken. Her husband and brother had left home the previous day on a visit to Limerick. The mysterious thing about the whole business is that the woman of the house did not hear the least sound that would indicate a quarrel of any kind. Mr. and Mrs.