

Does were the days . . . . . the big band years, photographed is the famous Limerick trumpeter, Bud Clancy and his band, who played to generations of Limerick people in the various dance halls in Limerick city and county