The highlight of the season, Palmerston, Boltons and Young Munster

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT)
The highlight of the season is the highlight but there is a wide range of interest nevertheless for Sunday. The action, and the Bill Mulcahy and Mick Dowd are in action, and the Young Munster and Old Munster game at Greenfields.

The Ulster-Dublin on Saturday were of a northern victory, and it must not be in the least of the outcome.

Trap 6 will suit Skelly's Leader

(BY DES HANRAHAN)

SKELLY'S LEADER, a beaten finalist in the Kennedy Memorial Cup, from trap six, must stand a very good chance of getting back on the winning trail when he contests the open event at the Market Field tomorrow night.

Trainer P. J. Hanrahan, who has been successful with Skelly's Leader in the past, is confident that the horse will be able to overcome his previous defeat. The horse is a very good runner and is expected to be in good form for the race. The race will be held at the Market Field tomorrow night.
