

THE FILES

REPORTS & PICTURES

ENT

Continue on supply

Continuing on supply at ... id Foynes after taste and smell ... d by a number ... fore the

Completed by ... s labs have dising unusual, ... g to Paul ... ctor of seruncil is still ... d out the ... ould not conditional chlor... have caused ... d taste. ... council staff ... he water and ... ng unusual, he erry Martin at ... s Rathkeale ... greeed a ... omplaints had ... d but said ... onal chlorinaed, as when ... the Deel River, ... ome people ... nsitive to smell ... an are others. ... ituation had ... normal.

priority s in city

VE Democrat ... andidate, Cllr ... y, has called ... duction of pri ... ridors in Lim ... ) improve ... port into the ... e suburbs. ... idors have ... in Dublin and ... umbers have ... up to 30 per ... routes on ... ave been in ... ourney times ... en reduced sig ... aid Cllr ... e plan will in ... vision of bus ... k times along ... route length ... for nublic

Babes in the Wood pantomime at Savoy Theatre with Jack Cruise and his troupe from January 1957

THIRTY YEARS AGO

CRIME

City taxi chief's car is attacked

GARDAI are investigating the smashing of the car window, owned by the chairman of the local taxi federation, whose life has been threatened. A rock was used on Sunday night to smash the side window of the car owned by Mr Albert your car". Another caller said: "I was dead". Mr Lawlor's car was damaged on Sunday night at Todd's Bow at around 10.30pm. "It could be just sheer vandalism or could be connected with the campaign," he stated. Meanwhile, 60 of the city's full-time taxi drivers have met and discussed the "driving taxi and on the dole situation". According to Mr Lawlor, 99% of the full-time drivers are in fa-

CRIME

Flats taken over by a hooded gang

FLATS owned by Limerick Corporation in Ballynanty were attacked by a hooded gang yesterday and Cllr John Quinn of the Progressive Democrats wants the Corporation to employ security men to prevent further damage. Cllr Quinn, who lives close pounds protecting the dump at Longpavement, it could surely spend money protecting the flats. "They were there last night and into the early hours of the morning. They were hooded and the local people are afraid of them. They even told them where they were from and they came from outside the place," Cllr Quinn told the meeting. "They were there 'til two, three, four, and five in the

Another great picture from the Robes in the Wood pantomime at Savoy Theatre with Jack Quilley, Bill ...