'May the fourth be with you': King Kong

ONE of the country's most acclaimed live acts are preparing for a monster show at Limerick's Big Top this May.

King Kong Company - self-professed "dealers of dirty-dubby-electro-rock" - are preparing a 'new show, new tracks, same crazy' that hits the Milk Market this summer.

The show is called 'get the f*ck up and dance' and takes place in the Big Top on May 4, bookers Dolan's have confirmed.

The Irish dance band released their self-titled debut album in 2016 and have since gained notoriety from a series of well-received festival appearances across Ireland and the UK.

Rising up: Limerick band Zombie Picnic unleash their new album this week

Zombie Picnic set to rise up

LIMERICK band Zombie Picnic will launch their second album Rise of a New Ideology on vinyl and download this week.

The post-rock instrumental band will mark the launch with a gig in the Kasbah Social Club on the same day as the album is launched this Friday.

The four-piece prog/post-rock band released Anger in Storage (Denial Will Follow) as a video and single on January 22 as a free download ahead of the new album, which follows 2016 debut A Suburb of Earth.

Rise of a New Ideology is released on their own label Golden Shred Records and distributed by UK-based progressive music specialists Burning Shed.

Druid po Beckett's

SAMUEL Beckett's masterpiece Waiting for Godot gets the Druid treatment at the Lime Tree in a much anticipated run this week.

The exceptional theatre company make a return to Limerick this week with the acclaimed play, starring Garrett Lombard, Aaron Monaghan, Rory N and Marty Rea.

Beckett's seminal play featuring two bickering, weary friends interminally awaiting the arrival of the mysterious Godot, opens tonight and runs until Sat at the 510 seater theatre, which is celebrating five years in business.

Druid bring this
