Well, unless you've been living in Leitrim for the last few years, you should know that this isn't some sort of dentist website, this is indeed the homepage of one of Limerick's most promising bands - Tooth.

The site is altogether a simple effort, but it's pretty straight forward and informative. There's quite a lot of stuff to surf your way through.

There are some pictures of the band in action on stage, where you can visually appreciate their raw energy. There's a 'sounds' section which allows you to download and listen to some of their tracks such as 'Nonsense' and 'Cyanide Sweetener'. Warning - don't download these if your grandmother is staying over. They even give you a link on how to get your own Mp3 player. Aw! Also on the site is a pretty big links page that should satisfy anybody who wants to look at the homepage of every other Limerick band or other related pages such as theamc.net or the Termights homepage.

The news page on the site is currently dealing with the side project of 3 of the 4 Tooth members, which goes by the name of 'Goodnameforaband'. The gigs page also gives current listings of where 'Goodnameforaband' will be playing and who they'll be playing with. You can also of course, sign the guestbook and let the lads know exactly what you think of them.

The most impressive feature of this website has got to be the 'reviews' section in which the band have posted many reviews of what other people have said about them and their music. It's a pretty good read and there's an impressive list of critics including Kerrang, Terrorizer, Metal Hammer, Hot Press, Melody Maker and of course Drop! Most of the clippings are reviewing Tooth's 'That Corporate Emotion' EP and many impressive things are said about the band, but I won't go into them here, you can log onto the site and read them for yourself.

Tooth are also listed on the forthcoming 'Commercial Breakdown #3' album. You can take a look at the full track listing for the CD on this website. You can contact the boys at toothweb@hotmail.com and if that's too much bother for you, you can just submit your name to their e-mail list and receive their occasional updates. All in all, this is a pretty cool site from a really cool band. Once again, the URL is <http://www.tooth.ie> LOG ON PEOPLE !!

If anyone has any comments on this article or suggestions for future articles, you can email them to me at red\_bull\_junkie@hotmail.com. Thanks a million for reading. See y'all next issue.
