

>>>> TOOTH gig at the Upperdeck

Tuesday 21st of July sees the return of promising Limerick band "Tooth" to Costelloes Tavern, after having packed the Upperdeck to capacity a few weeks back. Tooth have turned many heads on the local scene with local gigs at the Warehouse, the IMRO Showcase and Costelloes. International recognition was also received when their 4-track demo was voted "demo of the month" and the band were described as "imaginative, varied and well worth checking out" by British magazine "Metal Hammer". Tooth are one of the best bands on the live circuit and are definitely worth checking out. Doors open at 8pm and admission is only £2.

Essential Ennis

Brannigans in Ennis is now playing host to an impressive line up of DJs playing in the club there. Most of the country's top DJ's have already played there with many more scheduled shortly. Paddy Sheridan resident at POD Dublin was in the DROP offices last week on his way out to spin at a sold out Brannigans and was high in praise of the Ennis crowd. Other top DJ's hitting on the decks in Ennis are the guru Mickey Mac, as well as the award winning Johnny Moy and Mark Kavanagh with special guests in the offing very soon.

Chain Gang Return to Limerick

After their success in the Ark Tavern a few months ago the Chain Gang are returning to Limerick for another performance. Billed as "Get Em off You Tour 98" the Gang impressed so many ladies last time they were in town that the Ark have brought them back to perform on Friday July 24th for one night only! Tickets are on sale at the bar Tel: 348894.
