

Boyzone recruits Limerick Boyband

Major congratulations go out to Limerick's finest Remix who have just swung the most coveted support slot in the country. The boys will warm up for Boyzone on all three nights of their Christmas gigs at the Point this December. This is the latest in a series of coups by the foursome including appearing on this year's Beat on the Streets and releasing their second single. Remix are also headlining the first in a series of Cream of the Crop 98 charity gigs on Sunday November 1st at The Warehouse with support coming from Beautiful Noise.

Abbeyfeale goes SPEED GARAGE...

The National Ministry Of Sound tour touched down in Doc's last week, with Jazzy M impressing the packed house with a very smooth, very London house set. The tour rolls on and finishes up at Pilgrimage in Abbeyfeale on Saturday 10th October with speed garage dons RIP Groove doing their turntable wizardry on four decks and two mixers in the main room while Buddy and Stacky spin Hardhouse in room 2. Ministry of Sound @Flamingo's, Abbeyfeale, Co. Limerick. October 10th.

Fiona MacMahon's rising star

Local singer song writer Fiona MacMahon has been expanding her career in music recently following an appearance on RTE Radio One with Fiachra O'Brien last Friday October 2nd. Interest in Fiona's music has been growing steadily since her latest EP "The Guitar" was released a few months back. She is currently gigging in Scandinavia jumping between Norway and Sweden spreading the good word about her music, before returning to Ireland next month to attend the IMRO "Songwriters Collaboration" workshop in Killarney. Fans who wish to see her play live get the opportunity when she plays the "Cream of the Crop" charity gig in the Warehouse on November 21st.
