

Raging Sons play Pery's Hotel

Raging Sons write their own music; see them live at Pery's Hotel on Dec. 8.

FORMED in April this year, Limerick's Raging Sons are Fintan Tynan (lead singer, songwriter), Colum Kelly (lead guitarist), Damian Ruddy (rhythm guitarist), Will Clifford (bass guitar) and Colm Stack (drummer).

The band writes its own music and has been invited by Live 95FM to perform acoustically on air. The band recently supported Dublin's Riptide Movement at their Limerick show and has become a regular act at Cobblestone Joe's.

Fintan and the band have performed an intimate gig at the Arts Theatre in Ballina, Co. Mayo and reached out to new fans at a successful gig in Ballinasloe where they were invited to re-visit and play St Stephen's Night at An Táin-Bar. Raging Sons recently played one of Ireland's most loved venues, The Olympia, with The Group who pay tribute to 'The Band and The Last Waltz' concert film.

If you would like to check out this original Limerick act you can catch them in the Best Western Pery's Hotel, Saturday December 8. Admission is Free

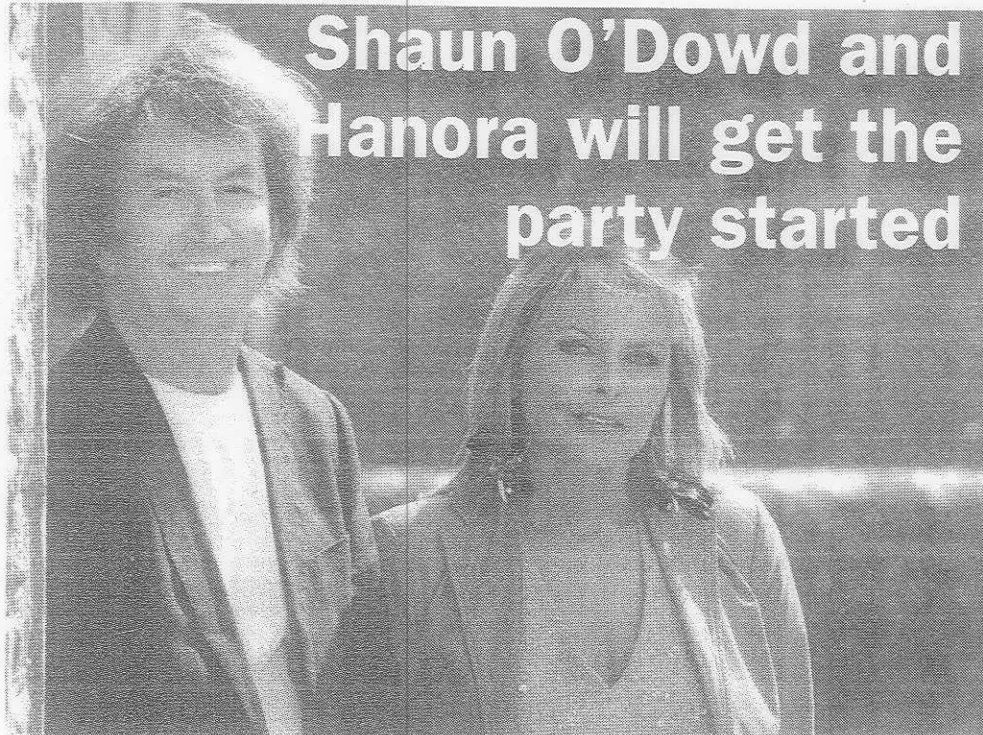

THURSDAY 1

TICKETS €10 AVAILABLE FR

The Library, 5/6 Corn
E: thelibrarylimerick@m

Shaun O'Dowd and Hanora will get the party started

December 31st

LIVE MUSIC BAR
THE LIBRARY