Obituary

STANDISH STEWART

It is indeed an honour to have been asked to write an obituary notice for the late Stan Stewart whose name and fame is familiar to most members of the Thomond Archaeological Society.

He was a chemist by profession, a photographer of note, and a scholar and antiquarian by choice. These qualities, together with a searching, keen mind and a patient gentleness of manner, combined to make him a delightful companion and friend.

He was always interested in history but came to Archaeology later in life, stimulated into thought, action and study of the subject by his friend the late Frank O'Connor. 'Tis many the miles they cycled together and many the fields they crossed in search of what Stan referred to as "me ould stones"; dolmens, abbeys, ruined monasteries, castles and so on were newly discovered, and nothing pleased him better than to show and explain the significance of these finds to others less erudite perhaps than himself.

Included amongst his hosts of Irish and English friends were several Americans and of these many visited him either in his shop or in his home; one of them said as she left him, "The World has a path worn to your door" and this remark epitomises all that Stan was.

These, of course, are personal reminiscences. The old order changes and with it the Society as the earlier members knew it—which is as it should be.

Stan Stewart served the Society and our era well. Of his splendid work as Treasurer and Committee Member the records speak for themselves.

May the Lord grant peace to his spirit.

Sarah O'Malley

We regret having to announce the death of the following members also:

Miss G. C. Stacpoole, 50 FitzWilliam Square, Dublin 2.

E. Treacy, 92 O'Connell Street, Limerick.

May they rest in peace
Proceedings, 1966

The upward trend in the Society's affairs noticed in recent years has continued. Lectures and outings have been well supported by large crowds and our membership has increased appreciably, a trend which we hope may continue for many years to come.

The Annual General Meeting was held on Thursday, the 10th of February, and was well attended. Afterwards the prize-winning film "Celtic Gold" was shown (by courtesy of the Rex Roberts Studio, Dublin).

On the 25th of March, Mr. Etienne Rynne of the National Museum of Ireland, gave a most interesting, and in places controversial, lecture on "The Carved Crosses and Slabs of North Munster," illustrating the lecture with numerous coloured slides.

The first outing of the year to Adare was held on the evening of the 12th of May, under the guidance of Mr. Thomas Pierce. Desmond Castle and the Franciscan, Augustinian and Trinitarian monasteries were visited, as also were the ogham stones in the grounds of Adare Manor (by kind permission of the Earl of Dunraven).

On Sunday, the 22nd of May, a plaque erected by the Society commemorating the patriots John and Edward Daly was unveiled by A M. Ó Cuiv, Éamon de Valéra —see Report of the Daly Memorial Sub-Committee, appended.

The Society joined with its sister body, the Cork Historical and Archaeological Society, for a two-day outing held over the Whit week-end, the 28th and 29th of May, during which many historical and archaeological sites in North Clare were visited.

On the 6th of June an ambitious bus-outing to Clontuskert Abbey and the battlefield of Aughrim, both in Co. Galway, was undertaken. Fr. P. K. Egan, of Killimor, Co. Galway, spoke at the former, and Mr. Martin Joyce, of Aughrim, led the party over the battlefield. Despite an unfortunate breakdown of the bus which somewhat dampened the spirits of the party, the outing was a great success.

On Sunday, the 26th of June, an outing to visit the Cistercian monasteries at Holy Cross and Kilcooly, both in Co. Tipperary, was held. Mr. Thomas Pierce recounted the histories of the abbeys and Mr. Étienne Rynne spoke on the various stone carvings, mural paintings and architectural features.

In conjunction with the Ballyvaughan Development Association, the Society visited Aran on Sunday, the 21st of August, sailing from Ballyvaughan on the tender "Galway Bay" and landing at Kilronan. It was a day of sunshine and many historic sites were visited, the highlight, of course, being Dun Aengus. The return was via Galway, where buses were waiting to carry the party back to Ballyvaughan.

The last outing held during the year was on the afternoon of the 25th of September, when a large crowd visited the Benedictine Abbey at Glenstal, Co. Limerick, the former home of the Barrington family. Dom Hubert de Varebeke, O.S.B., conducted the tour.

On the 27th of October, Miss Helen M. Roe, President of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland, lectured to the Society on "Aspects of Medieval Art and Architecture in Ireland," illustrating a fine lecture with many beautiful slides.

The last meeting of the year was on the 9th of November when Mr. Charles Thomas of Edinburgh University, gave an illustrated lecture to the Society on the "High Crosses of Iona," discussing their place in the history of Hiberno-Scottish sculpture.

T. P. PIERCE (Hon. Secretary).
REPORT OF THE DAILY MEMORIAL SUB-COMMITTEE

At a Committee Meeting of the Thomond Archaeological Society held in February 1966, a resolution was passed that the Society mark the 50th Anniversary of the 1916 Insurrection by erecting a plaque in memory of John Daly, the Fenian, and of his nephew Edward Daly, the 1916 leader, on the house at 15 Barrington Street, Limerick, which had been the residence of the Daly family, a house which in the words of An t-Uachtarán, Éamon de Valéra, "showed the continuity between the Fenian Movement and the 1916 Insurrection."

To arrange for the erection and unveiling of the Memorial, the following members were elected to a Sub-Committee:

Dr. Robert Cussen, Newcastle West.  Chairman.
Miss Mary Duane, Limerick.  Hon. Secretary.
Capt. Frank Parker, Limerick.  Hon. Treasurer.
Mr. Brian Geary, Limerick.
Mr. John Harrington, Limerick.
Mr. Patrick Lysaght, Limerick.

After a Commemorative Mass in St. Joseph’s Church, Limerick, the unveiling took place with simple formality at 12 noon on Sunday, 22nd May, 1966. Full military honours were given to An t-Uachtarán, Éamon de Valéra, on his arrival. Having inspected the Guard of Honour, An t-Uachtarán then mounted the steps of the Daly house to unveil the memorial, and was introduced to the attendance by Dr. Robert Cussen. The attendance included members of the Daly family, Rev. Dean M. J. Talbot (representing Rt. Rev. R. Wyse-Jackson, President of the Thomond Archaeological Society), Mr. Frank Leddin, Mayor of Limerick, subscribers to the Memorial, friends of the Daly family, and members of the Thomond Archaeological Society.

The wording of the memorial is as follows:

Anseo chónaigh SEÁN Ó DÁLAIGH (1845-1916), Fínín : i ngéibhheann 1884-1896 : Méara Luimnigh 1899-1902 ; agus a nia, an Ceannfort ÉAMONN Ó DÁLAIGH (1891-1916), ceannasai na gCeithre Gúirt, Baile Atha Cliath, in Éiri Amach 1916, a cuireadh chun bás 4 Bealtaine 1916.

Cumann Seandálaiocha Thuamhumhan agus lucht measa a chuir seo suas.

Here lived JOHN DALY (1845-1916), Fenian : imprisoned 1884-1896 : Mayor of Limerick 1899-1902 ; and his nephew, Commandant EDWARD DALY (1891-1916) ; commander of the Four Courts, Dublin, during the Rising of 1916, executed 4th May 1916.

Erected by the Thomond Archaeological Society and admirers.

The Presidential party and subscribers attended a luncheon afterwards at The Intercontinental Hotel, Limerick.
