THE SARSFIELDS OF COUNTY CLARE.

By R. W. TWIGGE, F.S.A.

The various branches of the Sarsfield clan probably derive their descent from one or more Anglo-Norman settlers in Ireland, who came over from the western Marches of England after 1172 and in the early years of the thirteenth century.

The earlier immigrants seem to have acquired lands in Des-Mumha, in and about the port of Cork, which had been ceded to the English Crown, and from thence sent out later offshoots from the parent stem to settle in the counties of Kildare, Dublin, and Limerick.

In the pedigree of Sarsfield of Co. Clare, registered in the office of Ulster King-at-Arms, in or shortly before the year 1800, this branch of the family, who suffered transplantation from Limerick in 1653, is traced downward from—

I. David de Sarsfeld, seised of the manors of Glynmeir and Culysil at the beginning of the fourteenth century. His wife Amabilla was alive in 1327, and by her, with other issue, he had a younger son

II. Peter de Sarsfeld, who was seised of Gogheston in 1355. His son

III. Richard de Sarsfeld was alive in 1376, and left a son

IV. William de Sarsfeld, who, on 10 July 1420, settled the manors of Glynmeir and Culysil which had probably come to him through failure of the line of David’s elder sons. William left two sons, Richard and Geoffrey.

V. Geoffrey de Sarsfeld by his wife Joan Martyn had issue

VI. Thomas de Sarsfeld, whose son

VII. Edmond Sarsfield was alive in 1532. He had two sons; the elder son William, of Sarsfield’s Court, was Mayor of Cork in 1542; the younger son was

VIII. Thomas Sarsfield, whose son
IX. Edmond Sarsfield was an Alderman of Cork in 1577. By his wife Catherine, daughter of Piers Golde, Edmond had issue, three sons and four daughters:

1. Thomas, alderman of Cork (Will proved 13 April 1621) married Margaret Roche (alive 1636) and left issue six sons — Edmond, James, William, Patrick, Francis, and Peter a priest, and three daughters.

2. Sir Dominick, the Queen’s principal Attorney-at-Law in Munster (Fianet 6436) 14 Sept. 1600; knighted 10 Feb. 1605; Justice of the King’s Bench 1609; Chief-Justice of Common Pleas 1616-1634; Premier Baronet of Ireland 30 Sept. 1619; created Baron of Barrett’s County and Viscount Kingsale 2 April 1625, which title was changed on 17 Sept. 1627 to Viscount Sarsfield of Kilmallock in Co. Limerick; deprived of his Judgeship by decree of the Court of Star Chamber in 1634. He married firstly Julian (alive in 1627), d. of — , and by her had issue two sons, Sir William the 2 Viscount, and Dominick Sarsfield of the City of Cork, and a daughter Ellen (alive in 1627). By his second wife Anne, widow of — Lofius (Will pr. 17 Sept. 1647), he had no issue, and died in, or shortly before, 1646.

3. John, of whom hereafter.

—. Margaret, the second wife of Walter (fitz Stephen) Coppenger of Cork, by whom she had no issue. Will proved 13 July 1627.

2, 3. 4. Ellinor, Anne, and Catherine, all living in 1627, spinsters.

X. John Sarsfield of Knockigrena, in barony of Connelloe, Co. Limerick, and other lands in Co Cork, all of which were confiscated by the Cromwellian Commissioners; Recorder of the City of Limerick. He was a Commissioner appointed by the Court of Exchequer to hold Inquisitions in Co. Clare 1610-1614, and died before 1653, leaving issue by his wife — two sons, Patrick, of whom hereafter; and James.

(1) The registered pedigree gives only two sons and makes John the elder. But the Will of Thomas quotes the entail created by his father, Edmond, which proves that Dominick was the second son and John the youngest.
The second son James Sarsfield, a burgess of Limerick, born in 1605, was transplanted in 1653 with his brother, but after the Restoration became tenant of Coonagh in the North Liberties of Limerick, and died 1664-5 (Admon. to his widow granted May 1665). By his first wife Ellina Ryce (marr. c. 1623, died c. 1651) he had two daughters:

1. Ellinor (born c. 1643, living in 1695) marr. Captain Simon Purdon (living 1695).

By his second wife Mary White (born 1625, marr. 1652, living 1665) he had issue:

3. Jane, an infant in 1653, living in 1660.
4. Paul Sarsfield, who was sent to France, and in 1690 was residing at Nantes. His son Sir James Sarsfield of Nantes, was knighted by King James III on 15 June 1709, and left two sons:

XI. Patrick Sarsfield, born 1593, bred at Bordeaux, Recorder of the City of Limerick, President of Co. Clare (1659-1660?), held various lands in barony of Lower Bunratty in 1641. Transplanted in 1653 to barony of Corcomroe, wherein 888 Irish acres were assigned to him (then aged 60 years), died in 1672. Will dated 9 March, 1660. Admon. as intestate 14 Nov., 1672. Will proved 29 January, 1768. Married Ellinor White (born 1605, dead before 1660), and by her left issue 7 sons and 3 daughters:

1. John, of whom hereafter.
2. James Sarsfield, died before 1690, leaving issue:
   1. Patrick Sarsfield, in Madrid 1690.
   2. Ellinor (living 1702).
   3. Another daughter (living 1702).
4. Ignatius Sarsfield, Captain (1689) and Major (1691) in the Hon. Charles O'Brien's Regiment of Infantry, and later in the service of the King of France; born 1639; described as of Cloonlara 1684-8; died in Savoy before 1710, leaving issue by his wife, Bridget Casey (buried 3 March, 1710. Register, St. Germain-en-Laye).

1. William  } Received Letters Patent of Noblesse from
2. Francis  } James III. at St. Germain, 27 Feb.,
3. Xavier  } 1712.

4. Jane Catherine (was a god-mother, 15 Nov., 1710. Register, St. Germain-en-Laye.)

6. Helena.

5. Xavier, born 1640 } Died during minority, before 1660.
6. Peter, born 1642

7. Francis Sarsfield, of the Middle Temple London, of Caherivakilly, in barony of Clanwilliam, Co. Limerick, and of Maudlins, etc., in Co. Kildare, died unmarried in London, 1711. Will dated 22 February, 1710; proved 1 December, 1711, whereby he left all his lands and personality to Daniel and John Arthur, bankers, probably in trust for Jacobite purposes.

1. Eleanor Sarsfield, born 1627 (living 1660), married Sir Geoffrey Galway, born 1617; succeeded his grand-father as second baronet in 1636; attainted 1642, and died 1652, leaving issue—Sir James Galwey, born 1650, and a daughter, Catherine Galwey.

XII. John Sarsfield of Limerick, D.C.L., J.P. for Co. Clare, 1686, had the lands in Corcomroe set out to his father Patrick confirmed to himself by Letters Patent under the Great Seal (30 Car. II.) and settled his estates in tail male, 1 March, 1693; died 1695. Will dated 25 April, 1690; proved 29 January, 1768. Another Will dated 26 January, 1695 was not proved. By his wife Catherine (dead before 1740), daughter of Simon Purdon of Tulla, by his wife Ellis, dau. and heir of William Bourke of Clonghadromond, Co. Limerick, he had issue—four sons and two daughters. His widow Catherine married secondly James Quin (dead before 1740).

1. Francis, of whom hereafter.

2. Dominick Sarsfield, Lieut. in Lord Lucan’s Regt. of Horse 1691 (?), filed Bills in Chancery in 1715 and 1717 along with his brothers, Francis and Michael.

4. Paul Sarsfield, dead before 1715 (?).

   These three younger sons were ordered by their father’s Will to take service abroad either in the army or navy [of France or Spain?]

1. Mary Sarsfield, living in 1690, and then the widow of Major Fox.

2. Grace Sarsfield, a minor in 1690. Described as widow of Philip Barry on 25 December, 1699, when she acted as godmother; and as wife of Lieutenant John Fitzmaurice on 27 April, 1701, when her son, Edmond Daniel Fitzmaurice was baptised. (Register of St. Germain-en-Laye).

XIII. Francis Sarsfield of Doolin, etc., married in 1710, Sibyl, daughter of Richard Martin of Birch Hall and Dangan, and lord of the manor of Claremont in Co. Galway, by his wife Catherine d. of Robuck French, of Duras Park, Co. Galway. He died intestate in 1736, and on 9 March, 1741-2, his widow filed a Bill in Chancery to obtain dower. By her Francis left issue 6 sons and 4 daughters:
1. James Sarsfield of Doolin, a minor in 1736, married "the Hon. Widow O'Grady, a lady of great merit and good fortune" (Dublin Journal, 17-21 March, 1740-1, in Brit. Mus.), by whom he had no issue. He died a widower and intestate in April, 1794, and Admon. was granted to his surviving next-of-kin his nephew Dominick Sarsfield of Coonagh, on 8 January, 1805.

2. Patrick, of whom hereafter.

3. Francis, alive in 1751
4. Anthony
5. Dominick, alive in 1754
6. Richard, alive in 1751

1. Officers in the service of the King of France in 1746. All died unmarried before 1776.

1. Mary Sarsfield (alive 1740), married Turlough o Loughlen (alive 1740).

2. Catherine Sarsfield, married

2. William Macnamara, m. 1738; d. 1762, by whom she had issue.
3. Nicholas Comyn, of Summerville, Co. Clare, marr. c. 1772.

3. Jane Sarsfield
4. Diana Sarsfield

3. Spinsters in 1740.

XIV. Patrick Sarsfield, an officer in the Irish Brigade in France till 1750; tenant of Coonagh 1752-1784; died August 1784; buried in Askeaton abbey; Will dated 1 August 1784, proved 30 June 1788. By his wife Honora (alive in 1805) daughter of Patrick Naish of Ballycullen Co. Limerick, he left issue, two sons and three daughters:

1. Patrick, who was lost at sea sometime between 1784-1794.
2. Dominick, of whom hereafter.
1. Susanna Sarsfield (living in 1805).
2. Catherine Sarsfield married William Connell (both alive in 1805).

These daughters do not appear to have left any issue surviving.
XV. Dominick Sarsfield, tenant of Coonagh from 1784; died intestate 1815-1816. Admon. 26 April 1816. By his wife Frances, d. of , who survived him, he left issue: "a son and heir, born at Askeaton in January 1809," (Limerick Gazette of 13 January 1809). This child died in infancy, and the race of Sarsfield of Co, Clare came to an end in the male line.

Subsequently Major William-Nugent Macnamara of Doolin quartered the coat of arms of his grandmother Catherine Sarsfield and assumed the Sarsfield crest also, viz.:—Per pale gules and silver a fleur-de-lys per pale of the last and sable. Crest—A leopard's head gold.

Kilconry parish: in 1641 Patrick Sarsfield was owner of part of Rineanna (5½ quarters) from which he was evicted by the Cromwellian Commissioners.

Killeely: in 1641 he also was seised of a small part of the lands of Meelick and Clooncosse and was evicted.

His possession of these lands probably explains the sentence in the Certificate of his transplantation to Corcomroe, viz.—"the said Patrick hath his stock and tillage upon his lands in the barony of Burren." In 1641 he was also probably seised of Coonagh in the North Liberties of Limerick, and after the Restoration seems to have regained possession of most, if not all, of these properties: (see his Will).

The lands set out to Patrick in Burren and Corcomroe by the Commission and confirmed by Letters Patent to his son John Sarsfield in 30 Car. II. were:

In Burren:

Kilmoone Parish: part of Ballytiege and Lisdoonvarna, the estate of Finghin Mac Gilla-Patric, and he also farmed Ballysheenmore set out to his grandson Sir James Galwey, in 1659 and 1664.

In Corcomroe:

Killilagh parish: parts of Ballycahan, Ballyvara, Ballyvoe, Caher mac Clancy, Carrowkeilty, Cahergaline, Carrownulcarr, Carrownanorane, Craggycurridine West, Doolin, Dunanhir, Doonmacfelim, Feaduffe, Glasha West, Killilagh, Teergonean and Toomulinn.

In 1641 Donnchadh Ua Briain was owner of Craggycurridine West and Doonmacfelim, and part owner of Ballyvara with Baothgalach Mac Flannachda. Aedh Mac Flannachda owned Ballyvoe, and part of Glasha West with Baothgalach. Conchobhar Mac Flannachda was owner of Carrowkeilty, and part of Ballycahan with Baothgalach. Domhnall Óg mac Flannachda owned Feaduffe, and the other lands were the inheritance of Baothgalach Mac Flannachda. All of whom were evicted and their lands assigned to Patrick Sarsfield.
In the census of the Cromwellian "Titulados" or Chief Tenants in 1659 (MS. R.I. Acad.) appear the names of—

William Sarsfield as tenant of Drumgeely in Clonloghan parish (misplaced in Dromline) under the Earl of Thomond, and Patrick as tenant of Ballysheenmore as noted above.

In 1663 Patrick was tenant of Drumgeely, his son William by that time being gone to Coonagh.
