ILL COUNCILLOR REAMER BE THE NEW MAYOR?

Y nominee of Fianna Fail than probably that the Fianna Fail Party Intend to change the town's name to D. B. O'Malley, Mayor of Limerick.

The party announced that they will oppose a motion calling for the removal of the name "Reamer" from the town. The party said that the name change would be "an insult to the memory of the great man who dedicated his life to the improvement of Limerick".

COUNCILLOR T. O'GORMAN

RUGBY PLAYER SERIOUSLY INJURED

Twenty-one-year-old Robert O'Connell, a rugby player for Limerick City, was seriously injured in a recent match against Galway. He was taken to hospital where he is currently in a critical condition.

Early morning tragedy in Limerick

The Limerick Evening Herald reported that a young woman was found dead in a park in the early hours of the morning. Police are investigating the cause of death.

Charged with A6 murder

James Harrington, 25, unemployed, of no fixed address, was charged with the murder of his wife, Margaret Harrington, at their home on August 28. Harrington is due to appear in court next week.

More polio cases

Three more cases of polio have been confirmed in Limerick this week. The cases were confirmed after the Ministry of Health announced that the virus had reappeared in the city.

Forced feeding of hunger-strikers

The National Assembly of the Irish Republic has passed a resolution calling for the release of all hunger-striking republican activists. The resolution was passed by a vote of 200 to 00.

Cardinal leaves hospital

The Archbishop of Westminster, Cardinal O'Connell, was discharged from hospital on Monday. He had been treated for a heart condition.

WHERE STANDARDS ARE STILL MAINTAINED

The Limerick Leader Limited 54 O'Connell Street, Limerick