URVEYOR'S SALARY.

County Council on Saturday, J.P., presiding, the Local Board forwarded extracts from Mr. Saunderson's report on the matter held by him concerning the salary of Mr. Horan, County Surveyor. At the time of the transfer of the Grand Jury to the Act of Parliament intended to be fairly treated, and increased duties imposed on the bodies. At the time Mr. Horan moved over to them his position on the Local Government Board he got an increase of £200 to his (Chairman's) mind of the Council. Now the matter came in with Section 25 incorporated therein the same, and it was on that point that Mr. Horan's salary under the Government Act passed was paid by the Local Board, but then they ceased to pay the entire salaries had to be paid from whom they now receive remuneration.

DEAR SIR, — After long suffering from eczema, being so bad I could not get on my feet for weeks, I was persuaded by my sons to try Clarke's Blood Mixture, which they purchased for me. I am so pleased to tell you the result. After taking several bottles I am able to walk out to work and home again at night in pleasure and comfort, although I am sixty-five years of age. I feel so grateful to you for my cure that I should like the public to know of it, and will answer any inquiries. — Yours truly, CHARLES MORTOCK, Gazeley, Newmarket.

A NUN ELOPES.

An up-to-date elopement took place the other day at Grave, a little town on Lake Como. One of the youngest and prettiest Sisters in a Catholic convent fled in the night with her lover, who is the son of a wealthy banker named Rosasco, of Turin. A rope ladder and the marks of an automobile wheels under the convent wall (the "Chronicle's" correspondent) clearly indicated the means of escape employed by the young lover. The young nun—or rather probationer, for she has not yet taken the veil—is 23 years of age, and had entered the convent four months ago, it is said against her will. The automobile was traced as far as Como, but as the lovers are both over age no legal proceedings can be taken against them. The gardener has confessed that he was bribed to aid them in their flight.
