

the trail for a distance
 many of the drifts were
 of a blinding snowstorm
 previous day. Weeks
 all can be reopened. The

Sun	17	3	28	...	17	11	5	1	...	18	3
Mon	18	4	17	...	19	6	4	37	...	19	10

These tides are influenced by the weather.

Announcement of Births, Marriages and Deaths, not exceeding 3 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 6d.

W TRIAL.

ew trial of M Zola will
 s Assize Court on May
 President of the Court
 residing judge, and in zch position, it is most prosecutor's department
 I Bertrand, the Public
 e, in person. General
 as not yet conveyed to the Legion of Honour
 rtial for M Zola's name
 st. It is believed that it further development
 y further action.

WAVY ACCIDENT.

urred on Saturday at Belfast and Co Down
 guard named Andrew
 and residing at 9 Pitt Belfast, almost lost his
 lggons were being unith the goods train of
 e when by some means ggons and fell with the
 as almost severed above
 te man also sustained a
 her injuries to his other moved to Belfast, and
 ospital, where the leg
 has a wife and three
 ant in a weak state.

N ITALY.

is Easter observed with
 the land of the Sunny
 e canopy of summerlike
 ofuse vegetation, with apped hills, exquisitely
 wealth of wild flowers,
 and violet, to say
 d with olives, all the
 are to be seen dressed ture. The customary in the Easter festival in
 One of the leading

BIRTHS.

- O'Donnell—April 11th, at Glenworth str et, Limerick, the wife of P. E. O'Donnell, Solicitor, of a son.
- Dawson—April 1, 1898, at 3 Gullstan terrace, Rathmines, Dublin, the wife of Robert E Dawson of a daughter.
- Gibson—April 9, 1898, the wife of R D Gibson, Stafford House, Merrion, Co Dublin, of a son.
- Walker—April 11, the wife of Frederick Hasler Walker, of Mount Vernon, Dollymount, of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.

- Evans and Walters—April 6, at St Stephen's Church, Upper Mount street, Dublin, by the Rev Harvey Stewart, M A, Arthur, second son of Robert Thomas Evans, Hillside, Greystones, Co Wicklow, to Elizabeth Margaret (Maggie), youngest daughter of the late George Philip Walters, and granddaughter of George Walters, 24 Hollis street.

DEATHS.

- O'Regan—On the 12th instant, at his residence, New Street, John O'Regan.
- Andrews—April 11, at her residence, Aram re Alma road; Monkstown, Ann, widow of Henry Andrews, Ja-tings, Blackrock, aged 81.
- Armstrong—April 10, at his residence, Monery House, Crossdoney, Cavan, William Armstrong, aged 65, deeply regreted.
- Welsh—April 9, at 25 Morehampton road, Donnybrook, Olivia Harriett, fourth daughter of the late Thomas Welsh, formerly of Woodstock, Co Waterford, aged 80 years.

T-grams from Nagasaki report a collision between English and Russians at Talienuan. This news, however, is not confirmed from any other source.

The annual conference of the Independent Labour Party opened yesterday in Birmingham. Mr Keir Hardie who presided, said the movement was as healthy, vigorous, and determined as ever. At north elections the party obtained

March 19

KILKEE

TO BE LET

On such terms as may be a
LARGE TWO-STORIED S
 IN FRANCIS STR
 Containing 4 Sitting-rooms, 7 B
 Pantry, and large enclosed Ya
 water supply by pump.
 Application to

H. DE L. W

March 26

TO BUILDERS AND CO

TENDERS will be received
 s re-t, Limerick, for the Dwelling Houses to be erected Road.

Tenders must be lodged before
 instant, at the above address, w
 Specifications may be inspected.
 The lowest tender not necessary

April 2

HOUSE TO I

BELLE VISTA, LAUREL H

Apply to S. G. BERNAL Laurel Hill Avenue.

April 12

FOR SA

THE property of an officer,
 Cart, with brake, for do
 harness; built by Bristol Wagg
 sound and in good condition;
 covered. To be seen at Mr
 Factory, George street.

April 7

BRICKS

CORK Brick Manufacturing C ar, prepared to supply o
 quality uncracked. Prices on app
 Anglosea-street Cork.
 Oct 9

WANTED—Furnished lodg
 within a mile or two of c
 to "F.L." this office.
 April 12