will aid
Extension

New Councillor was
All Ireland Hurler

M.R. MICK KENNEDY, who was appointed to the City Council to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Councillor John K. Kennedy, has been a member of the famous All Ireland hurling team that won a series of All-Ireland senior championships in the 1930s.

When he came to Limerick in 1933, the team had already enjoyed a number of successes, including a narrow defeat in the semi-final to eventual champions Wicklow. Mike Kennedy, a stalwart of the native Limerick side, played well in that encounter and was perhaps unlucky not to win the coveted title.

His contributions to the team were recognized, and he was invited to join the squad, which he did with great enthusiasm.

Prominent railway engineers and sports enthusiasts, Mike Kennedy was a natural fit for the team, and his skills and dedication quickly earned him a place in the starting line-up.

With two minutes to go in the semi-final to Waterford, Mike Kennedy made a spectacular save that preserved the team's hopes of reaching the final.

On reaching the final against the mighty Waterford side, Mike Kennedy was at his best, scoring two vital points in the crucial moments that led to Limerick winning the title.

With the team's success, Mike Kennedy was appointed to the City Council, fulfilling a long-held ambition of serving the community.

He died in 1948, leaving a lasting legacy in the world of hurling and civic pride in Limerick.

GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES

Hewitt's Whisky has issued its first phase of plans to develop its marketing strategy, which targets the lucrative market for women's beverages.

Hewitt's Whisky, known for its distinctive flavor profile, has recently introduced a new line of products specifically designed for female customers.

With its blend of smoothness and richness, Hewitt's Whisky is perfect for those seeking a luxurious drinking experience.

The introduction of these new products comes as part of a broader strategy to appeal to women's preferences in the beverage industry.

The campaign was launched with an extensive advertising campaign that features high-profile female celebrities and influential figures.

These efforts aim to create a strong brand identity and engagement with potential customers,

Hewitt's Whisky has already seen growing interest from female consumers, and the company is looking forward to continued success in this promising market.

The new line of products includes various flavors, catering to a diverse range of tastes and preferences.

These innovations are expected to further strengthen the company's position in the competitive beverage market, as it continues to lead the way in catering to women's desires.

Councillor Mick Kennedy

Mick Kennedy's success in U.S.A.

Michael Jackman, a renowned hurler from Limerick, has achieved remarkable success in the United States, where he has gained recognition as a top-class player.

In his early career, Michael Jackman was a key player for Limerick, contributing to their titles and breaking records along the way.

Over the years, Michael Jackman has continued to excel on the hurling field, displaying exceptional skills and leadership.

His determination and commitment to the sport have earned him a hefty reputation in the United States.

In recent years, Michael Jackman has made significant contributions in his role as a coach, helping to develop young players and share his wealth of knowledge.

The presence of Michael Jackman in the United States has not only been beneficial for the sport, but also for enhancing Ireland's international reputation.

Family

Michael Jackman's family includes his brother, sister, and other relatives who support and encourage his endeavors.

Mick Kennedy's family remains steadfastly behind him, providing unwavering support throughout his career.

The Kennedy family's commitment to their son highlights the importance of family in shaping disciplined and successful athletes.

The story of Michael Jackman's journey from Limerick to the United States is one of resilience and ambition, a testament to the determination and passion that fuels
success in every pursuit.