

dar ag an misiun. "Wasn't that a strange thing the missioner said last night? That the 4-letter word is no sin", bhiodar á rá. Níorbh leor sin doith. Thugadar a dtuairimí ar mhisiúnaithe.

POWERFUL Preachers. Níor luadar é'n órd a bhí ag tabhairt an misiún san eaglais áitiúil. "If the missioners go on giving out that the 4-letter word is no sin, at the mission for the children, it will be a poor look-out for God-fearing parents (like us), trying to give them a clip on the ear for using it," arsa bean amháin. Ach, bhí consensus spéisiúil le clos uathu faoi na misiúnaithe. "Ah, the order of missioners, we'd prefer, are the Omelette Fathers—they were always inspiring," arsa bean eile.

"NOT EVEN A BOXCAR." Bionn a thuairim féin ag daoine áirithe faoi na rudai a chloiseann siad sna heaglasai. Tháinig fear áirithe isteach i dtéach oíche amháin roinnt de bhlianta ó shin. (Sna blianta roimh Vatican Two). (Chuir an bean-a-lí ceist air: "I thought you were doing the Mission like all the rest of the men?" "I was, but what I heard last night finished me with the Mission," ars an fear seo. Ní raibh mar fhreagra ar sin ón duine eile ach: "That's what you got the gift of faith for—to accept things you don't understand." "Well, what I could neither accept, nor understand, was the Missioner telling us that the Holy Family had to fly into Egypt on an ass—wouldn't you think that

MY LIFE AND TIMES

(From Page 19)

ptoms of your sickness. You heard the possible solutions and the possible cures and similar experiences that a lifetime of oral tradition had passed on. You heard Mrs. Barrett make an appointment to visit you later, and that added to the luxury of your case. She would never call empty-handed. True, she would sit on the bed with your mother and after they had talked a little with you, they would lapse into a long dialogue of their own. But not before Mrs. Barrett had given you something, something to buy, something for yourself when you were up and away again. You could drift into half slumber and wake again, and when you opened your eyes herself was talking away as before, but her eyes would never have left your face. You lay there ill but at ease in your illness. It was a time to think and to wonder at the pleasure of being loved, seo, agus mar sin, is coir tacaíocht a thabhairt dos na cinn a bhíonn ann.

REALT COLMCILLE: Bhí an Og Realt ar siúl ar an Satharn, mar is gnáth, agus bhí se taitheamhach. Bionn an-eileamh ar an sort "Trath na gCeist," a bhíonn ar siúl—ceoil in usaid leis. Is trua nach bhfuil an tinnreamh níos fearr. Cuirtear tus leis ag 3 a clog, agus bionn se thart ar 9.

Cluichí éagsúla a bhíonn ar an gelár meascaithe le amhránaíocht, corr rinne paidreacha 7rl agus gach rud tre Gaeilge chómh fada agus is féidir. Níl aon gá le clárú oifigiúil sa Club seo atá á reachtáil ag an bráinnse ghaelach de Léigiún Mhuire, is féidir le páiste ar bith ós cionn 7 mbliain teacht isteach agus meallfadh an spiorad a bhíonn ann, é, chun úsáid a bhaint as an méid Gaeilge a bhíonn aige nó aici.

REALT MHAINCHIN: Is dócha nach gá a rá go mbíonn an Fáilte chéanna roimh daoine fásta chuig an Club sin-searach gach oíche Luan i Halla Ire, 18 Sr. Thomáis. Chómh maith leis an gnáth clár a bhíonn ar siúl gach seachtain—ceoil, rinne, caintenna, ceisteanna, claisceadaí 7rl—anois is airis tugtar cuir-eadh do Léachtaí éigin teacht agus labhairt linn. Sar i bhfad beldh a leithéid de cruinniu againn tuille eólas amch ann-seo.

Mr. William O'Dea, Milbourn, Kilteely, Co. Limerick, who has taken first place in his final law examinations at King's Inn went to U.C.D. in 1970, and was awarded the first prize on the results of the first year exams, for which some 200 candidates sat.

He was also awarded first prize on the second year's results, and graduated with honours in his 3rd year, and was awarded this his Tutorial Scholarship 1973-75 on the results of the final degree exam. Mr. O'Dea was appointed tutor of Constitutional Law at UCD and began his thesis for Masters Degree in Law O.L.L.M., toir o Shraid na nIascairí (Doolin) i gContae an Chláir, ag seinnt fonn traidisiúnta ar Selminéar-Seisiún faoi "The History of The Pipes in Ireland", ag an C.B.S. Auditorium, le fíor-dheanaí. Bionn Miko Russell le clos ar chlaracha traidisiúnta R.T.E. agus bionn sé faithiúil lena chuid foinn traidisiúnta do chualrteoirí ó Luimneach i dTabhairne Gus agus Dolly O'Connor i Sráid na nIascairí.

MR. TERRY HYLAND has been appointed chief public affairs officer, Alcan (Ireland) Limited. Mr. Hyland has been with the Alcan Group for 22 years, with positions in Canada, United States, Guiana (South America) and Britain. In his last position, he was responsible for public affairs relating to all Alcan companies in Britain and Scandinavia.

Miss Mary Crotty, P.R.O. of Jury's Hotel Group.

THE C... ON TH... HILLTC

Mr. John Gorman, president of the West of Ireland years ago when high on a hill Cliffs of Moher castle-hunting time, he bought restoration completed.

Mr. Gorman, growing number business executive in and their work to Tuesday, after Dungere Cas flew back to York.

John Gorman occasion was interest. He had to make arrangement of a being renovated to sun workers on the tions of Ecuador.

Andes

"I was down the foothills of tobacco business Luis Pedreiri, planter who business under Caup in Ecuador thrown in a Don Pedreiri's Gorman recalls. The bell is meter and weight. John Gorman when he heard in Doolin was he planned specially made the idea of his in the White in London, where Bell was cast. around for a Sling it would link the church of the Spanish

Dedicatio

The bell from dedicated to William and Limerick emigrant who were friar man.

Dungere Cas occupied by D. 1460. In 1652, possession, and history is of castle is in John Gorman.