Mr. Hall had a great reception at the Regie Hall, New York, last night being led twenty times and compelled to play res.

The death is announced at the age of seventy-five of the Rev. Edward T. Ego, of Woodford, Ox., the well-known Congregational minister.

Mr. Vincent Hill, General Manager of the Great Eastern and Chatham Railway, has been appointed Chairman of the General Managers of Irish railways.

The Edinburgh Sheriff's Court to-day decided the claim of Mr. Andrew, Secretary of the North British Distillery Company, for fifty pounds damages from Mr. David Stevenson, a fisher, for injuries sustained by being struck on the head with the latter's golf ball while playing on Musselburgh Links last May and rendered unconscious. The Court held that the injuries were caused accidentally.

Mr. Olsenfof, Thursday—Prince Obolenski says that Diet is Finland's only legal representative assembly.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION AT ENNIS.

A Difference of Opinion, (From our own Correspondent.)

At the meeting of the Ennis District Council yesterday, Mr. James Kennedy, J.P., in the chair.

The special business included the consideration of the renewal of the Compulsory Education Acts, for the ensuing three years.

Mr. Reidy proposed that the Act be adopted, and said that it had proved of the utmost benefit to the Newmarket district.

Mr. Harding's speaking as a member of the Education Committee, said that the Act had been practically useless, and mentioned that even one or two of the clergymen on the Committee were of the same opinion.

There was a very animated discussion, and finally on a poll, sixteen members voted for the renewal of the classes of the Act, and eleven against. One member did not vote.

Messrs. Jas. Kennedy, T. O'Hegarty, P. O'Grady, and T. Carrigg, were then elected in the
