Mountkennett Iron Works,
Mountkennett, Limerick, 20th April, 1888.
MRS. MARGARET RUSSELL begs to intimate to the friends and customers of her late husband, Mr John Russell, that the business of the concern will be continued by her, trading as "M. Russell and Son," under the superintendence of Mr James Russell, her son. All accounts due the firm are to be paid here to her.
She hopes for a continuance of the patronage hitherto accorded the firm, and a reminder that all classes of Iron Work can be executed in the Foundry on the most moderate terms and with despatch.
