

On Saturday, Mrs. Eggleston was without a record for a breach of the Act on November 2nd, and Mr. R. d. for being on the premises. An be lodged.

Rev. L. H. O'Brien, M.A., Dean of read himself in at morning service at Cathedral on Sunday. The sermon ed by the Bishop. The new Dean morning service.

of a man named Lucy, living at e birth to triplets last week. The event will be brought under Royal to secure the usual bounty.

from Athenry states that while Mr. e-Taylor was driving about eightaturday night towards his home fromeral shots were fired, one of whichorse, killing it.

Co., medicine contractors, threatenrdians with legal proceedings owingpay the cost of unreturned empties the Union dispensaries. The Board d the matter for a week.

ber fair at Ballykett, near Kiltrush, ll stocked, though prices did not buoyant tone of other recent mar-ess was consequently rather dull. ders await an advance at coming police were busily engaged oning in tearing down "anti-recruit-which were liberally disposed onalls of the town. The wording ofas exactly the same as that whichonnection with recent prosecutions. of John O'Brien, charged at the sizes with stabbing a man named a knife, medical evidence proved a prisoner was perfectly sane some recurrence he was insane at the assault. The Lord Chief Baron be sent to Dunderm Criminal m.

Gate Club, Clonmel, a handicap was played between Mr. R. nel, and Mr. Powell, Dublin, who 250 in a total of 600. There attendance, and play was ig. Mr. Murphy won by two s of the Crescent Quadrille Party nderella Dance at Messrs Roche's iles-street, on Saturday evening. bout 30 couple present, and aning was spent. The ballroom was ed for the occasion, while the feet order.

at a young man, residing at West ert, was admitted to the County unday evening suffering from n the head, alleged to have been quarrel with some other parties. i M-ry McCarthy, of West Com- Murphy, of Grague, have been d with being concerned in the of pearls among the mussels at emara, is no startling novelty, ing industry existed on many Scotland, and Wales from time r. Blimber's friends. "The pearls as plentiful in Britain as Julius Cæsar dedicated a breast- with British pearls to Venus gress of a Junior League foot-oleraïne on Saturday between g Bushmills and a local club, the former team sustained a f the right leg by coming in ith another player. It is some-nee that the

The marriage of Major G. D. Locker, Royal Munster Fusiliers, and Miss Norah Ogilby, will take place on Wednesday, the 3rd of January, at Christ Church, Celbridge.

Mr. Patrick Moloney, of Churchtown House, Carrick-on-Suir, Co. Waterford, who died on the 4th July last, left personal estate valued at £4,348 11s. 6d.

At Newcastle West, David Dea summoned Patrick Quail for the trespass of 14 cows on aftergrass. It cost defendant 14s and the costs of the court.

Lord Dunraven and Lady Aileen Wyndham Quin, are going to Paris for a week or so, but will return to Adare Manor shortly before Christmas.

The Garryduff Creamery Co. had a true half gallon measure on their premises, but it was not stamped. Sergeant O'Brien told the magistrates this, and the company were fined 6d and costs.

The many friends of Sir Horace Plunkett will be glad to learn that, according to the latest bulletin, he continues to progress satisfactorily. He must, however, still be kept absolutely quiet.

The marriage arranged between Mr. Leo Morrogh Ryan and Laura, daughter of the Right Hon. Mr. Justice Kenny, will take place on Wednesday, the 3rd January next, at Cabinteely Church.

The Carrick-on-Suir Urban Council is at present reconsidering a scheme prepared by Mr. Hackett, County Surveyor, Clonmel, for supplying the town with water at an estimated cost of £10,000.

Clonmel Guardians have decided to use nothing but Irish made goods as long as they are as good and as cheap as the foreign article, because, said the Chairman, we should be as careful of the ratepayers' money as we are of our own.

Nenagh Guardians are to be asked to allow the town band (which is getting on famously) to play selections of music in the workhouse grounds on Sunday evenings. It is done in Thurles.

Nominal fines were inflicted yesterday at Kiltrush on militiamen, who having received their bounty spent it not wisely or well, and as a consequence fell into the hands of the police. All promised to be less foolish in future.

Yesterday the funeral took place of Thomas Ryan, third son of the late Thomas Ryan, Tankardstown, Bruff, Co. Limerick, who died a few days ago at 169, Thomas street, Dublin.

The late John Pingle, butter merchant, Clones who died a month ago, left assets amounting £150,000, which will be divided amongst his next-of-kin, as the deceased made no will.

The twenty-four prisoners interned in Limerick District Prison awaiting trial at the Munster Winter Assizes will leave for Cork in the morning by the 11 o'clock train. They will be in charge of Head Constable Walshe, John Street, and a heavy escort.

A man named Thomas Mackey, while proceeding down a lane off Nelson street fell into an open drain, and received a scalp wound. He was conveyed by Sergeant Lonergan to Barrington's Hospital, where the sufferer is detained.

Owing to the ill-health of the Countess of Dudley the Lord Lieutenant has been obliged to postpone his proposed visits to the Duke and Duchess of Abercorn at Baronscourt, and Lord and Lady Inchiquin, at Dromoland Castle.

A London newspaper contains the statement that "Dr." Bridgewater, who has just been sentenced to 7 years penal servitude for forgery at London was a native of Limerick. No one in Limerick can verify this statement.

Mr. J. E. Redmond, M.P., has promised a deputation from the National Teachers, Waterford, that he would do all in his power to rectify the grievances then the Very Rev. James Canon Ballygarry, Co. Tipperary, aft illness. The deceased, aged 65, curate in Thurles in 1875, an January, 1878, succeeded Dean I Administratorship. In 1885, he to the pastoral charge of Ballin cession to the late Dr. Ryan.

Mr. P. O'Brien, M.P., the m kenny, on Tuesday sent a telegr Kimber, M.P., the author of the scheme, as follows:—"App grandmotherly concern about the representation recently, Kilkenr sympathises with you in your the death of your offspring. Re Sir Henry Kimber, it will be rem use of Kilkenny in particular as what he regards as glaring anoma

The Meade-Denis Estate in No just been sold to the tenants in Act of 1903. The terms of sale a tenants receive an abatement of 3 their present rents, 20 years purch term tenants receive a reduction 23 years purchase. A year's rent to purchase money, and all other out. The tenants to pay 3½ per sale is completed. The sub-tenant same terms from the tenants as th have obtained.

The beautiful forest situated in and romantic Glen of Gloumanet to Castle Island, County Kerry, has of its trees to a material extent. being shipped to foreign ports f forest had been one of the finest o Kerry, and adorns that romantic G neety which is rendered historic place where the Earl of Desmond powered with a few of his valiam followers and killed on a dark and many generations ago. The grav illustrious Earl was buried can still this spot.

THURSDAY

Ennis Union yesterday had a bal of £2,405 16s 3d.

There were no cases for hearing : Court yesterday.

The Hon. Mary Spring Rice l London from Mount Trenchard, Fo

The parish of Adare is vacant, cat appointment of Canon O'Brien to t

The parish of St. Jude's, Dublin owing to the resignation of the I Nash, B.D.

The Countess of Limerick is stronger. She has been recently in some days.

Mr. R. H. Carson has been appointe Crown Solicitor for County Tyrone, O. Dickie, resigned.

Mr. Batt Heiney has given noti for the abolition of mixed bathing found-out," Kilkee.

Sir William and Lady Goulding ha Egypt, and do not return to Millice until the second week in January.

The Local Government Board have payment of £51 8s. superannuation Hasset, Matron of the Ennis Workho Largely through the influence of La the exhibition of G. F. Watt's pictur sent in the galleries on The Mound, E is being transferred to Dublin.

Colonel Kiggell, and Mrs. Kiggell a have arrived from England at th Cottage, Glin, the residence of Majo J.P., for the Christmas holidays.

It is announced that