

Next week's "Bachelor In Paradise" co-stars Bob Hope and Lana Turner in a plush romantic comedy, which will be supported by "Across The Wide Missouri," with the late Clark Gable heading a popular cast. Thursday's dual-feature revival programme includes "Operation Petticoat," with Tony Curtis, and "Posse From Hell," with Audie Murphy.

LYRIC

Filmed in CinemaScope and colour, Monday's "It Happened In Athens" was filmed entirely in Greece, with Jayne Mansfield, Trax Colton, Nico Minardos and Bob Mathias co-starred.

Extra: "The Broken Land"—Dianne Darrin and Jody McCrea.

Thursday's "Military Policeman" is a revival with Bob Hope, Mickey Rooney and

CENTRAL

- The management of the Grand Central have the happy knack of presenting highly entertaining double-feature programmes.
- In this respect the current show is no exception—hence the not unexpected announcement that it will be retained for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next.
- "Nurse On Wheels" is a gay comedy with captivating performances from Juliet Mills, Ronald Lewis, Noel Purcell, Joan Sims and Esma Cannon.
- Add to this, the contrasting change of pace with "The Set Up," an Edgar Wallace mystery with Maurice Denham, John Carson and Maria Corvin, and you have the formula for a most enjoyable evening at the cinema—Grand Central style.

Stephen Boyd, Jimmy Durante and Martha Raye.

Trax Colton, winner of the Marathon Race, is congratulated by his prize, Jayne Mansfield. A scene from "It Happened In Athens", a 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope picture in De Luxe Colour which also co-stars Nico Minardos and Bob Mathias.

The fateful first meeting between Mitzi Gaynor and Rossano Brazzi leads to romance in Rodgers & Hammerstein's SOUTH PACIFIC. The 20th Century-Fox release also stars John Kerr. Technicolor.
