MUSIC . . . DINING . . . CABARET

THE Brazenhead Grill Anniversary Week, commencing on Monday next, will offer dining, dancing and cabaret each evening from 8 p.m.

Manager Brendan Ryan is planning the week with meticulous care and everything points to this being one of the most successful and unique experiments ever tried in Limerick.

The exclusive Brazenhead Grill in O'Connell St., Limerick, celebrates its Anniversary Week next week with a number of attractive features that should establish a precedent in the city.

The Brazenhead Manager, Mr. Brendan Ryan, formerly of the Pavilion, Dun Laoghaire, and Metropole, Dublin, will introduce dining, dancing and cabaret, a programme that should please even the most exacting patron.

In the distinctive and intimate surroundings of the Brazenhead there will be six nights of festivities, commencing with dinner each evening at 8 o'clock.

A special menu is being prepared which will include wines, and a really sumptuous repast in the unrivalled Brazenhead tradition will be served nightly.

THE CABARET

Dancing will take place to Johnny McMahon, whose experience in playing for formal occasions of this nature is second to none.

A veteran of the dance world, both in the States and England, as well as the rigours of TV, he is an ideal choice for this assignment.

The Cabaret promises to surpass anything of this nature yet seen in Limerick and will include the famous Irish radio and recording baritone, Sean Mooney, in his "songs of Ireland" repertoire.

The famous Polish stage,

Bar assistants—Marry Noonan and Michael Allen.

screen, radio and TV actor, Dennis Franks, will make his first public appearance in this city in a programme that is as yet a closely-guarded secret.

Mr. Franks, recently seen in the film "Dunkirk," is known to thousands of schoolboys and girls for his "Shakespeare Without Tears" lectures in schools and colleges.

Tom O'Donnell, Limerick's well-known comedian, and Paschal O'Grady, his partner in fun, will offer an interlude in which laughter will predominate. These two are ideal cabaret artistes. The De Lacy School of Dancing will also take part in the programme and a last minute addition to the star-studded bill of fare is the announcement that the brilliant fashion expert, Amee, will present a Mannequin Show.

It is expected that evening dress will predominate during this Anniversary Week at the Brazenhead.
