College Players: "The Winslow Boy"

The College Players have done it again! Accompanied as we are to their fine production, Limerick theatregoers were amazed at the perfection of the play...

Of Winslow Boy, who played Arthur Winslow, the father, what can I say or what can anybody say except that he played it well...

The highlight of the play was either the polished, perfect, Laurice O'Doherty, who played Maurice O'Doherty as Sir Robert Merton...

The remains were subsequently removed to Buttevant and the funeral took place in the local cemetery.

The deceased leaves a wife, two sons, a brother and sister to mourn his loss.

Now for the first time the exhibition is being held in Ireland, and it will be opened in the City of Cork tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon by the Deputy Mayor...

They are sponsoring an international weight-lifting championship, in which teams from Limerick, Dublin, Belfast, Cardiff and other parts of the country will compete...

The weight-lifting contest will be preceded by a demonstration of judo by members of the "Treaty Judo Club" and the "Treaty Judo Club" will present a hand-balancing act...

The characters "Stacy" and "The Saint" are now among the most popular in the Army repertoire. The cast of the forthcoming production, which opens on Sunday next, includes Sean O'Kelly, Sheila O'Doherty, Eithne O'Brien, Gerard Coffey, Toddy O'Connell, Michael O'Flaherty, Arthur Butler, Kevin Dunne, Betty Lawless, Gerrard Finn, M. De. Dubhachair...

Lorry Helper Crushed To Death

John McCarthy, a middle-aged man of about 50 years, residing at Grange, Buttevant, died from injuries received when he was crushed between a wall and a lorry...

Sergeant Quinlan, Pallaakerry, said that in the course of his investigation of the fatal accident he found that no brake was fitted to the trailer...

Mr. J. Noonan, solicitor, defending said defendant did not know until after the accident that the trailer was not fitted with a brake...

Mr. Noonan said that on the occasion in question the defendant was merely obliging a neighbour. At the time he didn't have the time to check the trailer...

The Justice said that in the circumstances he would strike out the summons.

GRAMMOPHONE CIRCLE

On Friday evening last at Cruise's Hotel, the Circle were honoured by the visit of Mr. Brian Boyde, R.L.A., who gave a lecture on the classical symphony...

Mr. Boyde centred his lecture on the classical symphony also briefing his audience as to how music has progressed through the ages...

Each movement of the symphony was delicately explained, as regards structure, contrast in form, recapitulation, etc. as it was with great clarity.

LINK LINE PROPOSAL

Dear Sir—I would like to draw attention to an innocuous comment in your report of last Monday's meeting of the Harbour Board...

My amendment to Deputy O'Malley's proposal was to the effect that the line was "now opportune" (not inopportune) as mentioned in your report...

DEATH OF MR. DAVID O'SHEA

The death of Mr. David O'Shea, 24 Henry Street, Limerick, on Saturday last in Barrington's Hospital, after a tedious illness...

Mr. O'Shea was a most efficient and widespread regret among his large number of friends and that of his family circle.

For some time back he was suffering from a serious illness and despite the best medical care his end came peacefully with full resignation to the Will of God.

The funeral, which took place on Monday last to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was largely and representatively attended...

SCHOOL "STRIKE" CONTINUES

The boycott of Rich Hill National School, Limerick, continues. It began on Monday morning when a notice was posted...

The parents would not permit their children to attend such a disrupted building. The school, built about 140 years ago was condemned as unfit as far back as 1914.

A public meeting, to which Deputies and Senators for the constituency have been invited, will be held at Lisragry on Friday night at 8 o'clock.

As a result of the annual general meeting, the existing Committee was returned to office for a further 12 months. On the 8th February Messrs. F.R.P.S. to lecture on "How to use Ilfordcolor" film.

DECREE GIVEN AGAINST LIMERICK BROTHERS

A DECREE for £111 was granted to James McNamara, 7 New Road, Singland, by Judge Barr O'Brien in the Circuit Court yesterday...

At a previous hearing it was alleged that the defendants assaulted the plaintiff while he was returning to his home. He received severe injuries as a result...

The judgment, the judge said, the evidence had shown that the defendants had served prison sentences for the assault they made on the plaintiff...
