COME AND SEE THEM AT: Vincent Finucane's New Premises, 14, UPPER WILLIAM STREET, LIMERICK. To whom we extend our heartiest congratulations.

A NEW electrical premises opened to-day at 14, Upper William Street, Limerick, under the personal management and supervision of Mr. Vincent Finucane, a well-known member of the trade.

MR. VINCENT FINUCANE of Sandy Lane, Caherconlish, Co. Limerick, opened his new electrical premises at 14, Upper William Street, Limerick, this (Friday) morning.

Mr. Finucane is one of the most popular members of the electrical trade in Limerick and district and by his unassuming manner and personal attention to all his contracts, big and small, has earned an unrivalled reputation for complete satisfaction and efficiency.

Educated at Crescent College; a member of the Crescent Past Pupils' Union, and a past member of the Cecilia Musical Society (he appeared in five shows).

Vincent also finds time to excel at sports, and he is an accomplished all-rounder.

A joint honorary secretary of the popular Caherconlish Lawn Tennis Club for six years; a hon. sec. of Boher Hurling Club for three years, he is one of the five brothers on the Boher team who reached the eastern final last year.

He is also the holder of various cups and trophies—a tribute to his skill and dexterity at hurling and tennis.

Vincent's new premises at 14 Upper William Street, will carry a large and varied stock of the latest electrical goods, including the Stim-line Television Receivers and the 1959 range of radio sets.

Record players, kettles, fires, irons, bulbs and fittings; in fact, everything in the electrical line, will also be on display.

Mr. Finucane has been the recipient of numerous letters and messages of goodwill from his many friends in every walk of life and we take this opportunity to wish him well in his splendid new enterprise.

★ He will be assisted by his brothers, Carol and Ignatius, both well-known members of this esteemed County Limerick family.
